CITY CONVENTION.

The Republican primary meetings, yesterday, resulted in the triumph in nine of the ten wards of the Anti-Arnold ticket by decisive majorities. We are not disappointed in the turn that affairs have taken; and nothing is left us now but to exhort the Convention which meets to-day to exercise a wise discretion in the choice of candidates. The exigencies of the party, in view of the approaching Presidential election, demand that none but unexceptionable men should be put forward; and that all Republicans should come up heartily and cordially to the support of the nominees. Recognizing in the PRESS AND TRIBUNE the obligation to do so, we encourage others to follow its example.

POPULATION OF KANSAS.

The telegraph reports the census of Kansas, as taken by the County Assessors for 1859, at 69,950. We understand that the returns are incomplete—that the whole census was imperfectly taken, and that no reports were received from several counties. Those best qualified to judge, assure us that Kansas has to-day over 93,000 people within her borders, which is the ratio for a Congressional Representative. Her population is probably not less than double that of Oregon at the time of the admission of the latter into the Union. But Oregon was supposed to be pro-slavery Democratic in politics, while Kansas is strongly Republican. We shall soon know whether Kansas is to be kept out of the Union as a punishment for abjuring pro-slavery Democracy.

REORGANIZATION OF THE POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT.

In the House of Representatives on Thursday last, a resolution, offered by Mr. Sherman, of Ohio, was adopted, instructing the appropriate committee to inquire into the expediency of reporting a bill for the division of the country into postal districts of not less than one State each—for letting the entire postal service, including the delivery of mail matter in such districts, to the lowest responsible bidder, over present post routes, and for abolishing the franking privilege. The resolution contemplates the entire re-organization of the Post Office Department. That some change in that department is greatly needed, is universally conceded. The fact that it has become so heavy a charge upon the National treasury—that in safety of transmission, promptness of conveyance and delivery, it is so far behind our Express Companies—and that its cost, in proportion to the revenue derived from it, in different sections of the country, is so unequal and manifestly unjust, have induced many to favor a surrender of the whole matter by the government to private enterprise and competition. The movement of Mr. Sherman is a step in this direction, and will be hailed with pleasure by those who deem a radical change necessary. It will also meet with favor from those who believe that the Post Office Department, as now constituted, places an amount of patronage at the disposal of the President that is dangerous to our liberties.

We are not prepared to assert with any positiveness that Mr. Sherman's plan would be an improvement upon the present postal system. On this point we can arrive at a more satisfactory conclusion when we shall have been put in possession of its details. We are glad, however, that the the subject is to be agitated, believing that whether the proposed change is carried into effect or not, the discussion of the subject—the exposure of the abuses of the present system—will lead in the end to salutary reform in that branch of the public service.

Fire in Cortland, DeKalb Co., Ill.

A gentleman who arrived in this city yesterday morning on the Dixon Air Line, informs us that a fire was raging in Cortland when the train passed through that town. A hotel and five adjoining buildings on the first street east of the depot, on the east side of the street, were consumed, and the flames were almost extinguished.

Pro Rata Movement in Pennsylvania.

A public meeting was held in Pittsburgh on the 15th inst., at the Merchants' Exchange, to consider what measures should be adopted to prevent discrimination against that city in the freight tariff of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad. The meeting adopted resolutions substantially as follows:

That the obvious intention of the Pennsylvania Legislature, in granting Railroad charters was the public benefit, and not unlimited power to tax and oppress, by exorbitant charges.

That the people of Pennsylvania were entitled to the use of the Railroads of the State on equal terms with citizens of other States.

That it is the duty of the Legislative power to protect this city from such oppression as the Pennsylvania Railroad inflicts.

That the policy of the Pennsylvania Railroad is destructive to interests which the charter of that road intended to protect, and that such policy should no longer be tolerated; that all freight carried between Pittsburgh and Philadelphia over the whole length of the Pennsylvania Railroad, is in every legitimate sense through freight; that the interests of Pittsburgh and Philadelphia, and of stockholders, require that Company to abandon its protectorate over Western roads, and that by leaving said roads to compete with each other, they, with the Ohio River, would bring to the Railroad a large tonnage of distant freight that its unwise and unjust policy at present attracts. That the immediate passage of a pro-rata freight bill be effected, having a provision requiring monthly or semi-monthly publication of rates between Pittsburg and Philadelphia, unalterable during the month, so that steamers on Western rivers might be enabled to contract for freight on as favorable terms as the Railroad Company offers.

Capt. Beltzhoover thought the passage of such a pro-rata bill would be detrimental to steamboat interests, and said a meeting of steamboatmen had been held that morning, at which they expressed their views and passed resolutions in opposition to a pro-rata bill.

Much was spoken, and in sharp terms, pro and con.

G. W. Cass, Esq, said it was nonsense to adopt such resolutions, and it would be utter ruin to the foreign freight business of the Pennsylvania Road if such a bill were passed, unless the four great roads would co-operate and mutually protect each other by the aid of State legislation in their respective States.

[From the Albany Statesman, 15th.]

The consideration of the Pro Rata bill was the special order in the Assembly this morning.

In the course of debate, Mr. Speaker Littlejohn stated that a member of the Assembly had written a letter to New York, stating that $100,000 would defeat the bill.

When the Committee rose to report, Mr. Jacques, of New York, offered a resolution for the appointment of a Committee of five to investigate whether any improper influences had been used to procure the passage or defeat of the measure, and to vest the Committee with power to send for persons and papers.

The resolution was discussed at considerable length. Before a decision was had, the House took a recess until this evening.

We understand that the mention of an investigation caused an immense fluttering in the House. We have not much faith in Investigating Committees. Somehow or other they always manage not to see what is plain to everybody else, and to see what nobody else can see. We shall hope, for the character of the Assembly, that the proposed investigation will result in an acquittal, but even then we should believe that the true verdict would be "not proven," for no man can doubt that the corruption exists. As one said to us this morning, we never saw pickerel bite at red flannel with more avidity than some of the Honorables in the House snap at a chance to be let in.

Fire at Tarrytown.

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—A fire broke out at Tarrytown last night opposite the depot, and destroyed eight or ten buildings occupied as stores and dwellings. It commenced at 12 o'clock in the store of Mr. Evans. The buildings were all wooden. Loss $12,000, covered by insurance.

Chicago and Pike's Peak.

[From the Omaha Nebraskian.]

Dr. John Evans presented a communication to the Board of Trade, of Chicago, a few days since, urging the establishment of an Express line from that city to Pike's Peak, via Iowa and the North Platte route. He stated that the most direct route to the mines was due West, and if the matter was taken hold of, the future trade of this region of country would be secured to Chicago.

Such is the fact. But a railroad connection with Nebraska would enure much more to the interest of the trade of Chicago. Not less than $200,000 is annually paid out by our merchants alone, to dealers at St. Louis and Cincinnati, for the reason that we have steamboat and railroad communication with those cities. While Chicago is asleep, thousands of dollars in coin in the West is seeking an investment in goods, &c., and it finds its way into the laps of the millionaires of the above named cities, from the reason that there is no direct Eastern outlet, and no competition. If Chicago expects to derive any benefit by a trade with this region, she must adopt some other mode of transportation other than an express wagon, a hundred of which daily loaded would be incapable of conveying the freight this city will alone receive the ensuing season.

A railroad to this city is what Chicago needs, and not until its completion can she expect to derive any great benefit in the way of trade, from the rich and abundant West. Until then she can fold her hands complacently, while her sister and rival cities are increasing in population and wealth.

Meeting of Railroad Men at Indianapolis.

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 15.

Pursuant to notice a Convention of Railroad men met in this city at 10 o'clock this morning for the purpose of fixing rates on Western roads. The following companies were represented: Michigan Central; Chicago, Alton & St. Louis; Chicago, Burlington & Quincy; Rock Island; Lafayette & Indianapolis; New Albany & Salem; Indianapolis & Cincinnati, and Indiana Central.

Mr. Knowlton, Assistant Superintendant of the Michigan Central, was elected chairman, and Mr. Bradshaw, Secretary.

The chair stated the object of the meeting to be the adoption of uniform rates of freight and passenger fare between Cincinnati and Western and North-western points. After some discussion it was, on motion of Mr. H. C. Lord,

Resolved, That the lines represented here agree to adopt the rates made by the Logansporte, Peoria and Burlington line, to all points where they compete, and pro-rate the same through Indianapolis, Lafayette and Michigan City, to which they are the shortest line.

The question of Transporting freight from Eastern cities through Indianapolis to Northwest points was discussed but no definite action was had.

Henry Ward Beecher's Idea of a Ship.

A ship is the most ingenious and mighty fabric which human hands have ever wrought. Nothing else is half so strong, neither pyramids nor temples, nor cathedrals of stone, which, before printing, gave opportunity for the human heart to express itself, gave forth the thoughts, and the sublimest feelings and aspirations of the greatest thinkers. There is not one of these things that does not easily fall to pieces. They can be moved by earthquakes as easily as the seed globe of a dandelion by winds that puff at it. But a ship caught by winds, and tossed about like a ball, is unharmed. It is smitten and whirled. It is rocked on waves as a cradle is rocked by a mother's foot. It rears up like a frighted steed. It plunges again like a war horse in battle. But though winds chase it, and storms reach out black hands after it, and waves forever beat it, and it must needs roll and plunge, it seeks its centre again, and comes upright the moment the airy hands let go.

Coaches from Nebraska City to the Mines.

We are pleased to be able to state to our readers that the prediction of our townsman, Unit Rasin, Esq., as contained in a letter in the News two weeks ago, relative to a line of coaches from Nebraska City to the mines, was an eminently wise and sagacious prophecy. The coaches are to run from this city. The "Pike's Peak Express Company" have determined to run coaches from this place. They will be put on in the course of a few weeks at fartherest. This has been determined upon. Good luck for Nebraska City.—Nebraska City News.

St. Joseph and Nebraska City Line of Boats.

Several large and fleet steamers have already been engaged to form a line between Nebraska City and St. Joseph, to run in connection with the Hannibal and St. Joseph Railroad. Among the number we are pleased to learn that the popular steamer Omaha is to be in the trade. The Des Moines and Emilie, have also been engaged, and will, at the first opening of navigation, wheel into line. Of the further movements of this line we will advise our readers by and by.—Nebraska City News.

Consecration of a Bishop.

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 15, 1860.

Bishop Talbot was consecrated to-day, in Christ Church. Bishop Smith, of Kentucky, preached the sermon. Bishop Smith, of Kentucky; Kemper, of Wisconsin; Hawks, of Missouri; Upfold, of Indiana, and Bedell, Assistant Bishop of Ohio, officiated. There was a large body of clergy and others present.

Cassius M. Clay at Washington.

An eye-witness thus describes the attentions paid to the hero of Frankfort during his recent visit to the seat of government:

"There has been of late years nothing like the reception of Mr. Clay at Washington. When, on Wednesday last, he entered the Hall of the House of Representatives, for more than an hour he was surrounded by persons of all parties—old acquaintances and new; even men from as far south as Tennessee came up to pay their respects to him. The galleries were crowded with ladies and gentlemen, and all eyes were upon him. His speech at Frankfort on the 10th of January has produced a sensation rarely equalled in the history of the country, and all were anxious to honor the hero and patriot who so ably and gallantly stood by his country and the Union."

PROPELLER LINES.—The arrangement of the lake propellers belonging to the New York and Erie Railroad Company, and now running to Dunkirk—rumors concerning which line we have noticed, intimating its having been changed to run to Buffalo the next season—has at length assumed a definite shape by the agreement on the part of the New York and Erie Railroad to do all of their "Upper Lake" business through the Buffalo, New York and Erie Railroad, and the organization of a daily line of first class boats for that purpose, to run to and from Buffalo and Detroit and Upper Lake ports, instead of running to Dunkirk.

We also hear of important modifications in other lines for the coming season, several gentlemen from New York and the East, interested in the lake commerce, being in our city at this time, making arrangements necessitated by the above change, and also having reference to the American Transportation Company, whose boats were sold a few days since.

These arrangements will bring into requisition a larger fleet of boats than was in use last season.—Buffalo Courier.

MONEY SENT TO THEIR FRIENDS IN IRELAND BY SERVANT GIRLS.—The amount of money sent to their parents, brothers and sisters, and other relatives, by the Irish servant girls in this country, may well astonish the public. Rev. Dr. Cahill, who is now lecturing in this country with so much eclat and success, took the pains to ascertain the amount sent to Ireland in a single year. He obtained returns from the different offices in this city which transmit money to that country, and found that in the year 1859 the aggregate sum amounted to $1,350,000—a million three hundred and fifty thousand dollars.—N. Y. Herald.

JOHN SMITH TAKES TO BUFFALO HUNTING, AND FAILS.—A young man of Scandinavian origin, owning the universal and useful name of John Smith, went extensively into street operations in buffalo robes yesterday, and by active attention to his vocation actually effected fifteen different transactions in the line of taking buffalo and wolf-skin robes from vehicles left standing in the street. These several articles of peltry he pawned for sums ranging from three to five dollars. Officer Tenbroeck came in as a marplot on John's fur trade, and took him into custody, recovering five of the robes, which he restored to their owners. John gave no good account of himself, and was held in $1500 bail.

SUICIDE.—Aaron Baker, living in Perry township, about nine miles from Lafayette, Ind., committed suicide on the 14th inst., by cutting his throat, while laboring under insanity. He had made two attempts upon his life previously. The cause of his insanity was his failure to deliver 150 hogs to a firm in Delphi, as he had agreed. He had been paid in advance for the hogs, but the cholera breaking out among them many died, and he was unable to fulfil his agreement.

FULFILLED ITS MISSION.—The members of the organization which was effected last Thursday night, for the purpose of breaking up several disreputable houses, have concluded to settle with the owners of the buildings, pay damages, and disband, having accomplished the object for which they came together. Each member of the company will probably bleed about five dollar's worth.—Grand Rapids, (Mich.) Enquirer, 12th.

SHIPMENTS OF PLASTER.—There were 514 tons of plaster shipped over the Detroit & Milwaukee Railway from the 6th to the 11th February, inclusive, as follows: By Hovey & Co., 250 tons; Sanford & Co., 147 tons; McReynolds & Stuart, 117 tons.—Ind.

☞ Rev. Dr. Proudfit, Emeritus Professor of Greek and Latin at Union College, an for many years an honored member of the Faculty of that institution, died on Saturday.

☞ We would call the attention of housekeepers to J. H. Cropper's advertisement of Roraback's Compound Chemical Toilet and Washing Soap, in another column.

MILITARY.—The Chicago Dragoons, Captain Barker, will parade, starting from the Armory at 10 o'clock, on the 22d inst., in honor of Washington's birth-day.

EXAMINATION OF TEACHERS.—There will be an examination of Female Teachers at the office of the Board of Education, No. 119 Clark street, on Thursday, February 23d, commencing at 9 o'clock A. M.

RECORDER'S COURT.—During the February term of the Recorder's Court, the grand jury found twenty-five indictments. Of these, five resulted in verdicts of not guilty; four were nolle pross'd; five were continued; and in the remaining fourteen, verdicts of guilty were obtained.

AM. PROT. ASSOCIATION PARADE.—The American Protestant Association make their second annual parade on the 22d of February, in memory of the birth-day of George Washington. The members of the order in Chicago are all summoned to appear in their respective Lodge Rooms on that morning at nine o'clock.

STEALING JEWELRY.—A young girl, named Anna Lumkin, only fourteen years of age, was arrested Thursday night for stealing a gold pencil and some other small articles of dress and household use, from Mrs. Bristol, Peoria street, with whom she was living as a servant. As she has many friends in the city, she will probably be given to them in hopes of her reformation.

SOCIETY EXERCISES.—The Rhetorical Society connected with the "Chicago Theological Seminary," hold a public meeting next Monday evening, at 7½ o'clock, at the Seminary Chapel, west side Union Park, corner Washington and Reuben streets. The programme will consist of two Orations, a debate on the question, "Are Sects the normal outgrowth of Christianity?" The public are respectfully invited.

THE CITY MISSION.—"I was sick, and ye visited me; naked, and ye clothed me." A public meeting will be held in St. James Church on Sunday afternoon, at four o'clock, in behalf of the mission to the poor. The Missionary will make his quarterly report, and a statement of the work done. The city clergy are expected to be present and address the meeting. The public are invited to attend.

GEORGE SUMNER.—Among the many popular and successful lecturers with whose services Chicago has been favored this season, none have been received with greater favor than Mr. Sumner. He is now fulfilling a series of engagements in the State, and will give us his lecture on "Old Europe and Young America" at Metropolitan Hall, on his way East, on Monday night, the 20th inst.

THE RICHMOND HOUSE HOPS.—We ought to have said, some days since, that the sixth and last of the season of the Richmond House Hops, which took place Tuesday night last, was one of the pleasantest that ever occurred in this city. The company was very large, but not larger than the generous hosts were prepared to entertain, which they did with a profusion and elegance that elicited the warmest admiration of all.

LATEST FROM HAVANA.—Ed. Osband, of the Tremont House cigar stand, has "come out powerful" with one of the choicest stocks of cigars and tobacco ever offered to the retail trade in this city. Of Ed. may be bought the genuine German Latakea smoking tobacco, pressed Regalias, Leandres (the best brand in the city), Andre Rivas, El Sol, Flor D'Morantes, and other favorite brands of Conchas. Also, a choice assortment of meerschaum pipes. In fact, let lovers of the weed in all its forms look in upon Ed. and profit by the seeing.

SAD ACCIDENT.—We are pained to learn that a little girl, about eight years old, was run over by the Rock Island cars on South Clark street yesterday. She was taken into a shanty near at hand by three Irishman, and medical aid summoned, Dr. S. Wickersham, who took the poor little child to the City Hospital, where amputation will be performed should the sufferer rally. On the authority of a citizen, whose name is in our possession, we state that one Dr. O'Ryan, at No. 467 South Clark street, was first sent for, but absolutely refused to go to the aid of the injured girl unless his fees could be previously guaranteed. Such conduct is brutal.

Manufacture of Ready-Made Clothing in Chicago—An Eight Years Test.

In connection with our remarks on the era of Manufactures, which we believe abundant indications show to be dawning upon us as a city, we recently took occasion to refer to the fact that a prominent Wholesale Clothing House (Messrs. Hunt & Co.) were this season to commence manufacturing their stock in this city. We were only in an error in claiming that they were pioneers in the trade, as our own files could have given us evidence that another house in the same line have for eight years past entirely manufactured their stock in Chicago.

We refer to the well-known house of Messrs. Leopold & Schlossman, in the five-story iron block No. 47 Lake, near State street, where they occupy four floors with their extensive ready-made clothing business. The instance serves the more strongly to sustain our former position, since it is no experiment, but the actual and well tested experience of a now veteran house in their line of trade in this city.

They have carried it on through a period of high rents and exorbitant rates of living. They have continued the manufacture through a period of general business depression, and with this experience, are all the better and more fully prepared for the opening of this epoch when, by low rents, cheap provisions and an abundant population asking for employment, the attention of capitalists here and abroad is being drawn to the tempting field offered for manufacturing enterprises in Chicago.

Eight years ago Messrs. Leopold & Schlossman began the clothing business in the little wooden block opposite the Tremont House, near the corner of Lake and Dearborn streets. In all the period since that time (until now, as for two seasons past, the managers of first class wholesale business, and occupying a first class store) they have never sold a garment not of their own manufacture, and for which as such the reputation of their house has not been pledged. As the result their reputation has been fairly and honestly earned. At times they have furnished employment to from four to five hundred persons. There are numerous families which have drawn their sole support from this house throughout the entire period, and several instances where in the depression which has kept so many mechanics idle, the wife, and females of their household have been its stay, through the agency of their Sewing Machine and constant employment furnished from these Clothing Manufactures. Generally, however, the work is farmed out to men who make their own bargains and employ their own operatives.

The Sewing Machine, (Singer's, so say the Ready made Clothiers,) has introduced a new era in the Clothing Manufacture, and brought a blessing to operative and to consumer. The former realizes more from his or her industry the latter pays a less price for work better done, seams with a strong, double thread, garments that will hold together longer than was known or even imagined in that earlier period when "Slop" clothing was quite another thing from the substantial product that gives the basis for the extensive Ready-made Clothing business of the present time.

Messrs. Leopold & Schlossman are preparing more extensively than ever before for the Trade of the coming season, and their stock will comprise a very heavy and varied assortment of goods in their line, every garment of Chicago, manufacture.

POLICE.

FLEECING A COUNTRYMAN.—A man named Henry Tege, who lives near Crete, thirty-four miles south of this city, sold a load of oats to a man whom he met on his way in, who chanced to be a runner for a grocery, corner Buffalo and Liberty street, where the oats were taken. The grocer in paying for the oats borrowed ten dollars from the runner, two fives, which the countryman found were altered from ones, when a complaint was entered. The runner could not be found, but the grocery man was arrested and brought before Justice Akin. He avers that he knows nothing about the runner, that in fact he was a total stranger to him. The case has been continued for further examination.

VAGRANT.—John Scott, an individual who has often figured in the Police Court, was fined last Tuesday morning, having only left Bridewell the day before, and execution suspended on his promising to leave town. He was again arrested on Thursday evening and yesterday morning was fined $25 as a common vagrant.

DISCHARGED.—Margaret Leslie, an old customer, was arrested for being drunk. She was released on her promise to go to the priest and take the pledge.

DRUNK.—W. Rogers was arrested charged with being drunk, and breaking into No. 329 South Clark street. He was fined $5.

A COUNTRYMAN IN TROUBLE.—Samuel L. Porter, was arrested, very drunk, on Blue Island Avenue and brought in on a dray. He belongs in Baileytown, near Michigan City, and was here to get a loan of money on some real estate. He was fined $3 and the execution suspended, as he promised to leave the city.

DRUNK.—Joanna Leonard was found on Monroe street in a saloon drinking with a young man. She was very drunk, and was fined $25, as she is an old customer who has often been leniently dealt with on her promises of reforming.

CONTINUED CASES.—The cases of David Vina, drunk; Mrs. Vaughn, receiving stolen goods; and Mary Wilson, vagrancy, were continued until the 18th inst.

FIGHTING.—George Gallagher and Wash Ready, were fined $5 each for indulging in a fight.

STOLEN GOODS.—Mrs. Downey, who lives in Carpenter street, between 3d and 4th streets, was arrested to-day for having in her possession one dozen silver spoons, one being marked "F. A. P.," another "A. B. P.," another "F.," another "W. F. P.," and another "B. D." The rest were plated, and with no marks. She had also a garnet, breast pin, and a gold locket containing hair, all of which were undoubtedly stolen. She is in jail awaiting examination.

FIRES.

FIRE.—About 3 o'clock yesterday morning a large two story house on West Kinzie street between Wood and Prairie, in the West Division, The building was unoccupied and was owned by parties abroad, for whom James Cobb of this city is agent. The house was valued at $900, upon which there was no insurance.

ANOTHER.—The fire on Thursday evening was in the roof of the dwelling house of Mr. Bloomfield, No. 86 North Dearborn street. The fire was occasioned by a defective stove pipe, which becoming over-heated, kindled a bed standing near it. The house was not insured, but the damage was very slight.

LOCAL MATTERS.

☞ Go to John Jones, 119 Dearborn street and get your clothes cleaned and repaired. They will be well done and at prices to suit the times.

☞ Call at the Sewing Machine Depot of H. Alexander, No. 108 Lake street, and see the most superb Sewing Machine yet produced. G. B. Sloat & Co. fe18-3tx.

CHICAGO, Feb. 17, 1860.

TO THE PUBLIC.—As certain parties have endeavored to make capital out of the late fire on LaSalle street, and "claiming honor to whom honor is not due," the affidavit of Officer Oliver, in my employ, will show where and to whom the credit belongs ot discovering the fire in the Merchant's Hotel. As this is the second fire the members of my force have discovered recently, it was necessary for the parties to try to mislead the public. Not deeming it a matter worth public controversy, I will allow the public to judge from the following affidavit,

G. T. MOORE, Merchants' Police.

State of Illinois, County of Cook, ss:

A. A. Oliver, being duly sworn, says:—On the night of the 14th of February, at about half-past ten o'clock, when in front of Burch's Bank, a strong smell of smoke in that vicinity attracted my attention, and I immediately proceeded to the wooden corner opposite, and, making a thorough examination, satisfied myself there was no fire there. Returning on Lasalle street, I could see smoke just beginning to issue from the roof of the Merchants' Hotel. I immediately gave the alarm of fire, and ran to the house to alarm the inmates, which I did before any other alarm was given, or any unusual noise made to intimate anything was wrong. I then ran to Randolph street to give the alarm to the bellman, deeming it better to have the whole Fire Department there as soon as possible, than one engine a minute or two sooner than the rest. While there a man passed me on a run through La Salle street, who I supposed was John Scully going to the engine-house of Long John. I halloed to the bellman a number of times before the alarm was struck, which has been done in numerous instances by the members of the Merchant's Police, when the light from fires has been seen on Lake street, from five to twenty minutes before the tower bell has struck the alarm.

A. P. OLIVER.

Sworn to and subscribed before me February 17th, 1860.

EVERYBODY'S FRIEND!
Soap Made Without Ley or Grease.
Roraback's Compound Chemical Toilet and Washing Soap.
USEFUL, SIMPLE AND CHEAP.
Patented March 2, 1857.

This Soap is unsurpassed, or we may say unequaled by any in the world. Its qualities for washing, shaving, softening and whitening the skin, are far superior to any other compound now in use. It will prevent the skin from chafing; it removes tan or sunburn; it will remove tar, grease, or lampblack from your clothing, with cold or warm water. In the first place, this soap is made without ley or grease. In the second place, the toilet soap is made at five cents per pound and the washing soap one cent per pound. In the third place, it can be made in five minutes, and is so simple that any one, after purchasing a recipe, can make it, and the materials are easily obtained.

In the fourth place you can take a barrel of common soft ley soap and make two of it in fifteen minutes at a cost of 30 cents per barrel, and any lady can do a washing of clothes in half the time that it takes before the soap is doubled, and then it goes just as far again. A barrel of soft soap weighs 240 pounds, and that at 5 cents a pound, the usual price, makes $12.00; thus you make your receipe clear in the doubling of one barrel of soap, to say nothing of a better article at one cent per pound.

☞ I will furnish to any one the above recipe, with full instructions for FIVE DOLLARS in good current money. All money sent by mail is at my risk. All orders promptly attended to. Address the undersigned at Cropper's Depot, Shelby county, Ky. [fe17x3td1-w] J. H. CROPPER.

DISSOLUTION OF PARTNERSHIP.—The co-partnership heretofore existing between the subscribers, in the Printers' Furnishing Business, and Type Foundery Depot, under the firm of Rounds & Langdon, is this day dissolved by mutual consent. All claims against the firm on company account, and all debts due the firm will be settled by S. P. Rounds, who will continue the business at the old stand, 155 Randolph street.
S. P. ROUNDS,
Chicago, Feb. 1st, 1860. JAS. J. LANGDON.

The subscriber, with enlarged facilities, will continue the Printer's Furnishing business, Electrotype Foundry, Newspaper Advertising Agency, and Steam Book and Job Printing, and respectfully asks a continuance of public patronage.

TRUSTEE'S SALE.—Whereas Malinda Olson did, on the thirteenth day of November, A. D. 1858, make, execute and deliver to me, the undersigned, a certain deed of trust of the premises hereinafter described, to secure the payment of a certain promissory note mentioned in said trust deed of even date therewith, for the sum of one hundred and eighty nine dollars, payable one year after the date thereof, with interest at the rate of ten per cent. per annum after said note should be due, with a condition in said trust deed contained that in case default should be made in the payment of said promissory note according to its tenor and effect, said premises should be sold to satisfy the same, after giving 12 days notice of such sale in some newspaper published in the city of Chicago; which said trust deed is recorded in the Recorder's office of Cook County, in book one hundred and sixty [160] of deeds, on page two hundred and sixty-two, [262]. And, whereas, default having been made in the payment of said promissory note according to its tenor and effect, public notice is hereby given that on Thursday, the first day of March, A. TWICE ASKED.

In a brief comment, the other day, on the late action of the Kansas Legislature, in abolishing Slavery, we remarked that Popular Sovereignty and the Dred Scott decision would be brought face to face, if Kansas persisted in her act. We declared ourselves on the side of Popular Sovereignty, and respectfully asked the Chicago Times, the most blatant of the Douglas journals, to define its position on the question involved. The Times is discreetly silent. We ask again: Will the Times sustain the Territorial Legislature of Kansas in its late exercise of the right to abolish and inhibit Slavery within the limits of that Territory? Shall we have an answer?

FREE TRADE WITH CUBA.

On Thursday last, Mr. Maynard, of Tennessee, offered a resolution in the House of Representatives, which was adopted, setting forth "that the geographical position of Cuba to the "United States renders it eminently desirable "that there should be free and unrestricted "personal and commercial intercourse between "them, and directing the Committee on Foreign Affairs to inquire into the expediency "of a convention between the United States "and Spain, so as to facilitate commerce by "the reciprocal importation and exportation of "the agricultural and manufactured products "of the two countries, free of either import or "export duties, and the free passage of persons from one country the other." This is a move in the right direction, and we are glad that it comes from Tennessee. As a substitute for the scheme of saddling the people of the United States with a debt of several hundred millions of dollars, for the purchase of Cuba, and as a final extinguisher of rampant fillibusterism, nothing could be so effectual as reciprocal free trade with Cuba.

The advocates of annexation profess to believe that the possession of Cuba is necessary to the security of the Gulf States, in case of war with a maritime nation. This argument is the main reliance in making out their case. But it is shown to be valueless by the fact that with a much smaller expenditure of money than would purchase Cuba, we can secure all the advantages, in a military point of view, which its possession would confer, besides many others of a commercial character that the ownership of Cuba could not possibly give. These advantages are to be obtained by the construction of a ship canal across the peninsula of Florida. Recent surveys have been made of the route of such a canal, by a competent engineer, under order of the Government, and the report not only shows it to be eminently practicable, but that its cost will not exceed ten millions of dollars. This is but the twentieth part of the estimated cost of Cuba, supposing that Spain would consent to sell it at any price. As an alternative for annexation, it commends itself strongly on the ground of economy; while it places the key to the Gulf in our possession; shortens the route from New York to New Orleans, the mouth of the Rio Grande and Tehuantepec, by at least five hundred miles; besides wholly avoiding the dangerous navigation of the Florida Keys, so fatal to our shipping. If it is necessary to expend money to give us control of the key to the Gulf, let it be used for the construction of this canal, which can be made at so small a cost, rather than spend it in unlimited amount for the purchase or conquest of Cuba.

No question of commercial policy has been presented to the American people for a long time, that can combine so many interests in its support as this one of reciprocal free trade with Cuba. All the States on the Atlantic seaboard have a direct interest in it, for the reason that it would augment their commerce and greatly increase their carrying trade. Not a port or city, from Portland to the mouth of the Rio Grande, but would feel the impulse of an increased commerce. The great grain and meat-producing regions of the West have a still larger interest in the measure; for it would open a new market for their products, and would establish at once a permanent advance in each of their great staples. The States bordering the Ohio and Mississippi Rivers are equally interested, for those streams would become the great highway for a large portion of the trade that would spring up between the States and Cuba. The whole country has a general interest, in addition to those which are special and local, by reason of the fact that reciprocity with Cuba would stop the drain of from fifteen to twenty millions of specie that now goes annually to pay our balances with that Island. We know not how a policy could be more strongly fortified by solid, unanswerable argument. Let us have reciprocity of trade with Cuba, put a stop to fillibustering, and place a quietus upon the miserable vagabonds who are constantly trying to bring the country into trouble.

THE McLANE TREATY.

We print in another column, the text of the McLane-Ocampo treaty lately agreed to by the representative of the United States on the one side, and the Minister of Juarez, the Constitutional President of Mexico, on the other. It is by far the most important document that has been laid before the American people since the meeting of Congress; and we trust that our readers will not fail to give it an attentive perusal.

It is indisputable that this Mexican question cannot much longer be deferrred. The destiny of the Mexican Republic is in American hands; and it is for American statesmen to judge when the time has come in which the power that we unquestionably possess over that country shall be put forth. We think it has arrived; and that the opportunity afforded by the treaty which we present herewith ought not to be neglected; but that the offer extended to us to work out the regeneration of that oppressed people should be cordially embraced, to the end that our political ideas, our religion, our industry and our civilization may be propagated where their opposites have so luxuriantly flourished. We say this knowing our responsibilities to the Republican party, and in the interests of the great free-soil movement of which we are a part, confident that no negotiation, that, in behalf of the United States, proposes what Juarez is ready to grant, can again be carried through; and confident also that the consummation of this bargain will, by cutting up fillibustering by the roots, and by giving scope and verge to Northern enterprise, give us real, practical, commercial security that all of Mexico will hereafter be preserved to free labor and free men.

This treaty gives us all the advantages of ownership of the soil without the burdens of governing; while to the Mexicans themselves it opens up the way by which they may attain a good and stable government, the material improvements which belong to the age, the nucleus of a national commerce and the corner-stone of a rational Christianity. We see no good and sufficient reason why it should not receive for its ratification every Republican vote. Senators of our political faith may be able by following the history of the negotiation to show why it should be opposed; but until we have other light than that afforded by the text, we are for the treaty.

A SUGGESTION.

In view of the present complication in European affairs, and the attempt on the part of the Papacy, backed up by Austria, to force odious rulers and a more odious system of government upon the people of the Romagna and of the Duchies, we hope that some Republican in the House or Senate at Washington will take measures to get from the American Congress an expression of sympathy with the people of Italy who are struggling for their freedom. It may be done by a joint resolution or by a resolution of either House, and when done, would be gratefully received by the patriots for whom it is intended. Of course anything which might look like a challenge of the authority of the Sovereign Pontiff to reduce his subjects to wretchedness or to assist Austria in oppressing Tuscany, Parma and Modena, would cause the Catholic dignitaries of this country to pant with rage; but we assume that Papacy has not made such progress in the United States that it may prevent an American Congress from encouraging by a kind and timely word, those who are struggling for the right to "regulate their domestic institutions in their own way," or that it will find itself powerful enough to punish those who cause that word to be spoken. To say nothing of the effect of such a resolution in Europe, there are tens of thousands of men of foreign birth, in this country, whose faith in our theory of government would be strengthened by its passage. We commend the suggestion to the Republicans of the Lower House. Let us have the resolution passed, or let us know why it fails!

DOUGLAS' POSITION.

Whenever Douglas' opinions form the subject of Democratic speeches or editorials, the following extracts from a letter written by Gen. Quitman, of Miss., on the 24th of March, 1856, should be remembered:

In a short conversation with Douglas yesterday, HE SAID TO ME THAT WHAT HE MOST FEARED WAS THAT TIMID SOUTHERN MEN WOULD FALL BACK.

* * * * *

HE DEMANDS NOT ONLY THE USE AND ENJOYMENT OF THE COMMON TERRITORY FOR THEIR PROPERTY, BUT INSISTS ON ITS PROTECTION THERE.

* * * * *

He is the true representative of this principle, AND OPPOSES THE ABOMINABLE PRINCIPLE OF SQUATTER SOVEREIGNTY.

Let us inquire of the Chicago Times—are Douglas' opinions properly stated, or was Gen. Quitman a falsifier. Will the Times answer?

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

This is a large and pretentious volume, and as wonders will never cease, we may as well have a wonder in the book line as in anything else. The author was originally a Deist, and then a Baptist, when the spectacle of a Roman Catholic Christmas festival arrested his attention. He then perused the debate between Campbell and Purcell, which led him, no doubt the principles of the Protestant faith. With the zeal of a lawyer who argues only on one side of a question, he pursued his researches and the results are embodied in his book. It makes a large show of legal principles and rules of evidence, and makes some strange admissions as to the rights of reason or private judgment, strange at least as coming from such a source.

Much of the book is merely a rehash of stale arguments often compiled, though rearranged and presented in a more systematic and connected form. The author goes over nearly the whole field, including the visible Church, the governing power of the Church, the infallibility of the Church, the primacy of Peter, marks of the true Church, Transubstantiation, Penance, Purgatory, Indulgences, and Invocation of Saints, with much other miscellaneous matter. The book grows exceedingly tedious before one has proceeded far, and we feel that the author has done as much as in him lies to limit its circle of readers. But it is valuable as showing the persevering ardor of a man in defence of what he has been led to adopt of antiquated error. Of course we have no law against a man adopting any stupidity he may please, and defending it with whatever ability he can command.

THE FATE OF SIR JOHN FRANKLIN Discovered by Capt. McClintock, R. N. Boston: Ticknor & Fields. Chicago: S. C. Griggs & Co.

The brief results of Capt. McClintock's memorable voyage in the Fox in search of Sir John Franklin, already known to our readers, will make them the more anxious to read the details of Arctic life given in this volume. For years the whole civilized world was deeply agitated for the gallant Franklin, and the ever enduring devotion of his noble wife kept up the search, and humanity would not be content till his fate was known. Capt. McClintock has lifted the veil from the mystery which has so long held Europe and America in suspense. The trip of his little steamer the "Fox" will always be memorable in the annals of Arctic discovery. As this is or should be the last voyage of the kind, at least during this generation, and the narrative of it is exceedingly interesting, we bespeak for it a widely extended circulation.

THE GOSPEL IN BURMAH: The Story of its Introduction and marvelous success among the Burmese and Karens. By Mrs. McLeod Wylie. New York: Sheldon & Co. Gould & Lincoln, Boston. Chicago: S. C. Griggs & Co.

We have here a sketch of the Baptist Burmese Missions from their origin nearly down to the present time. The subject is deeply interesting in itself, and the narrative is one which is far from taking the shape of dry annals. We have here the features of the missionary field and the toils and heroism of the missionaries, Boardman, Judson, Wade, &c., brought vividly to view. The incidents of missionary experience, or anecdotes of native converts, are not unfrequently deeply instructive or affecting. The perusal of this volume will at once demonstrate the necessity and utility of Christian missions, and is another valuable contribution to the missionary literature which has sprung into existence and importance since Judson landed in India.

HUMANICS. By T. Wharton Collins, Prof. of Political Philosophy in the University of Louisiana. New York: D. Appleton & Co.; Chicago: S. C. Griggs & Co.

This is certainly a very able work, but it requires more extended and more careful study than we have had time to give it, to enable us, to decide upon the correctness of its principles or their practical value to general readers. The author addresses himself especially to thinking men, as his book is too profound to secure the attention of ordinary readers. We commend it specially to persons of a philosophical turn of mind as likely to afford them interesting topics for study and reflection.

ANNUAL OF SCIENTIFIC DISCOVERY FOR 1860. Boston: Gould & Lincoln; Chicago: S. C. Griggs & Co.

The industrious editor of this compilation has here concentrated a great variety of facts, under appropriate scientific divisions, which had been going the rounds of the newspapers and scientific journals, or embodied in the reports of scientific societies. Its contents afford a striking illustration of the rapid progress of physical science, and the distinguished talent and energy that are now devoted to its development. The names of many American scientific men figure honorably in its pages, whose researches have added to the elucidation or the positive achievements of their favorite pursuits. The volume is embellished with a portrait of Mr. Isaac Lea, the eminent Philadelphia naturalist, and President of the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

THE ORIGIN OF SPECIES BY MEANS OF NATURAL SELECTION, OR THE PRESERVATION OF FAVORED RACES IN THE STRUGGLE FOR LIFE. By Charles Darwin, M. A. New York: D. Appleton & Co. Chicago: S. C. Griggs & Co.

Dr. Darwin has given the world a very able work on the difficult subject of which he treats. He combats the generally received opinion that the parents of each distinct species were created separately, and attempts to show that the varieties of the same genera may have had the same origin. If we read him correctly, however, he does not arrive at sceptical conclusions, as did the author of the Vestiges of Creation, from the same theory. The book will attract the attention of the scientific world, and the theory it attempts to establish will be thoroughly discussed. Let that discussion go on, and the truth will by and by be developed.

MELODIES OF ZION—For Union and Social Meetings and Family Worship. By H. O. Pinney. Owego: H. D. Pinney & Co.; Chicago: S. C. Griggs & Co.

This is a very fair collection of hymns and music, but it is not half so good as Temple Melodies, or the excellent work of Mr. Hastings.

THE HOMESTEAD. By Dickens.

T. B. Peterson & Brother, of Philadelphia, are issuing the works of Dickens in numbers, of which this is one. It can be had of S. C. Griggs & Co.

DOBELL'S POEMS.

This work, a 16mo. and beautifully bound, was received from S. C. Griggs & Co. It must be good, or some thief has made a fool of himself, for it was stolen from our drawer before we had time to read it. May the stings of a guilty conscience haunt him forever.

Republicanism in Douglas Co.

[Correspondence of the Press and Tribune.]

TUSCOLA, Feb. 15, 1860.

The Republicans of Douglas County have commenced in earnest for the campaign. At a meeting of that party held in this place on the 11th inst., a County Committee consisting of 20 members from the different precincts was appointed, of which the Hon. J. E. Wyche was elected Chairman and T. D. Craddock, Secretary.

After listening to very interesting speeches from Mr. Taylor of Arcola, and Mr. Van Dyke of Tuscola, the Convention adjourned to meet in mass at the call of the Committee.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Announcement of Broderick's Death—Douglas and Dead Men—Speeches of Haskin, Hickman and others—The Assault upon Hickman—Winter Davis at Home—Slavery in Maryland, etc.

[Special Correspondence of the Press and Tribune.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14, 1860.

The death of Broderick was announced in both Houses, after which they adjourned. Senators Seward and Crittenden made some appropriate and feeling remarks on the life, character and services of the deceased Senator. Others also spoke. Douglas was not present; he absented himself on the plea of indisposition. He has no use for dead men. You remember his cold-blooded conduct, when poor Harris, who had served him so faithfully, was on his dying bed? He went not near him in the last hours of his existence, to cheer his spirits and bid him an affectionate farewell. The dying man could serve him no longer, and why should he regard him farther? But it is not on account of the dead alone that he exhibits those amiable traits of character, but to the living. Who fought more gallantly for Douglas in the Lecompton struggle than Forney? He was in the House when Forney was elected Clerk. He stood within six feet of him when he took the oath of office, but he neither extended the hand of congratulation or the eye of recognition. He turned his head coldly away and stood with his back to his former devoted friend. He ostentatiously exhibited to the fire-eaters this mark of bad manners and base ingratitude. He cut Forney's acquaintance to please them.

Burch of California read a brief and vapid biographical sketch of the murdered Senator. Haskin pronounced a hearty tribute of praise to his memory. They were school mates and boyhood companions—both starting out to battle with the world together; they were both Democrats, of the Jefferson and Jackson school. Broderick went to California, telling his friend Haskin when he bid him good bye, that when he returned to that city he would come back a peer in the highest body in the land; and he made his words good. Eight years afterwards they again met in this Capitol. His deceased friend came as a Senator from the Golden State, and himself a Representative from their old State. Last spring when parted with Broderick a cloud overspread his manly brow. He had a presentiment that he would never return. He told Haskin that they would never meet again; that assassins thirsted for his blood and demagogues longed for his seat.

John Hickman next occupied the attention of the House with a few eloquent and pathetic remarks which brought tears to many eyes. His words and manner were impressive and affecting. His eulogy upon the dead Senator was hardly surpassed by that of Colonel Baker, delivered on the funeral occasion. It was certainly a beautiful gem of thought, robed in the purest English. That the speaker made no direct allusion to the cause of his death—that he fell a victim to the malevolence of the slave power—caused some disappointment; but I understand that he refrained from reference to that matter through the advice of others. So strongly was Broderick impressed with the belief that he would be assassinated on his return home, that he requested Hickman, to whom he was warmly attached, to say a kind word to his memory before the Representatives of the Nation.

Mr. Burlingame followed Hickman, and took every one by surprise with the beauty and tenderness of his tribute of respect to the deceased. It was unquestionably the finest production that he has yet delivered in the House.

To the intense disgust of all sides, Dan. Sickles thrust himself before the House, to eulogize the gallant dead! This was too rude a shock to the sensibilities of members, and suppressed hisses ran around the galleries. The people hastily arose, placing their handkerchiefs to their noses, and left the Hall. The seats of the members were speedily emptied, and few or none remained to hear what he said. There is an irrepressible desire for the Committee on Contested Elections, to report, and give the House an opportunity to rid itself of his presence.

An investigation will be demanded, I understand, to inquire into the assault made upon John Hickman by Edmundson of Virginia. Much indignation exists on the subject, which may finally lead to the expulsion of the assailant. A more cowardly act could hardly be committed. Edmundson is a large, powerful fellow, in full health, as able-bodied and as big as any man in the House. Hickman, on the contrary, is a slight built man, weak and feeble, and hardly able to totter into his seat; is afflicted with bleeding of the lungs, and runs a strong chance of not living to the end of his term. To strike such a man is as cowardly and dastardly an act as to strike a woman. It was the same Edmundson who was present with Keitt when Brooks made his murderous assault upon Senator Sumner. What was the provocation? Hickman had said in reply to disunion threats and vaporing, something sarcastic about the fright into which Virginia had been thrown by Old Brown with his 21 men, and by the panic caused by a cow after his capture. Was this not the truth? Did not Wise publicly upbraid the Virginians for behaving like a flock of sheep? Did not Old Brown, wounded and gory in his own blood, cause a panic and a tremor throughout the whole State? Were not thousands of armed men employed to hold him a prisoner while he was tried by lynch law, and did it not take an army to execute him?

Why was not Hickman answered at the time he uttered his sarcasm? What justification can be given for this brutal act of violence? One would think that these nigger-drivers had learned a lesson from their Kansas raids, and the consequences. Northern men can not be beaten into subjection, as are their cowering slaves. The people of the North are not in a frame of mind to pocket insults and outrages of this description, without feeling strong temptation to resent them. Slavery exists, not by law alone, but by Northern tolerance and forbearance; and personal assaults and attempted assassinations of Northern Representatives for words spoken in debate, have not a tendency to promote forbearance or extinguish sentiments of resentment.

The telegraph doubtlessly informed your readers that a resolution of censure upon Winter Davis had passed the Maryland Legislature for voting for Pennington. There was only one negative vote. Four or five of the Baltimore members dodged. But the act of the Legislature has aroused public indignation and provoked the resentment of the people. The masses heartily sustain him. A call has been circulated in Frederick for a public meeting to be held to-morrow to uphold and justify the votes cast by the brave and gallant Davis, to which was appended the names of over 2,000 signers—many of them Democrats. The meeting will denounce the Legislature for passing their resolution of censure. A demonstration will shortly take place in Baltimore to indorse their noble Representative. It will be a huge gathering. The truth is, the masses in Maryland are with Davis on the slavery question. They are growing tired and sick of the presence of the hateful institution, and a large majority would gladly rid the State of it. Maryland ere long is destined to take her place among the free States of the Union. Slavery is felt and admitted to be a wretched and useless institution. A few of the Eastern Shore counties cling to it, where the chief business is breeding slaves for southern markets, as your prairie farmers breed cattle for eastern markets. But Baltimore and the counties along the northern line are becoming impatient to abate the nuisance and clear the State of the pest; and as these anti-slavery sections largely preponderate in population, enterprise and education, they will ere long secure the end which they have so much at heart. With the powerful moral and political aid a Republican administration would give to these efforts, slavery would not last four years. Elect a Republican President and before his term expires Maryland will be enrolled among the free States—and little Delaware also. Will not the knowledge that these glorious results will follow a Republican national triumph incite every lover of freedom to greater zeal and activity? Push on the column. As your city will be honored with the presence of the National Republican Convention, let her put herself on record this spring in a manner that will add a new laurel to her well earned fame as the foremost Republican city in the Union.

CHICAGO.

Iowa Legislature.

[Correspondence Press and Tribune.]

DES MOINES, Feb. 14, 1860.

Yesterday the House, after a three days' argument, came to a vote on the bill for the resumption by the State of the Land Grant to the Iowa Central Air Line Railroad. The bill passed by a vote of 54 yeas to 26 nays. Although this bill says nothing about any further disposition of the lands, yet it is considered as a triumph of the Cedar Rapids and Missouri River Railroad Company. In other words, it is the preliminary step towards granting the lands to that Company, and is so regarded. This movement is advantageous to Chicago, and indeed the Chicago, Iowa and Nebraska Railroad Company is probably at the bottom of the movement. The Dubuque interest is connected with that of the Milwaukee and Lacrosse road, and this is a power in our State Senate. I doubt the passage of the bill in that body, notwithstanding the large majority in the House.

Yesterday the House indefinitely postponed a bill making a judgment a lien on all land of which the debtor appears the owner on the Records of the County. In other words, it proposed to make the judgment a valid lien as against an unrecorded deed of date prior to the judgment. The Supreme Court has lately decided this question in favor of the purchaser under the unrecorded deed, and this action of the Legislature fully sustains it.

A good part of two days has been spent on a bill allowing a redemption of one year on sales under mortgage foreclosures. This, also, has been one of the vexed questions in our State. The Supreme Court held, last summer, that there exists no right of redemption after a sale on a foreclosure. Among members of the bar great diversity of opinion existed; but the probability is that a large majority of the people have given mortgages under the advice that a year after sale was allowed them to redeem. The bill will pass in some shape. The more radical of the "relief" force want it to be made retro-active, so as to allow this right on all sales within the past year. Such is the bill offered by Judge Claggett, which not only gives this redemption after sale, but also provides for a stay of execution for one year before execution before sale. It also declares the law to have always been just what the Supreme Court have decided it was not; that the Supreme Court were all wrong in their decision on this question, and requiring them hereafter to decide differently from what they already have, acting on their oaths. This last clause is Judge Claggett all over. While on the bench, he earned the appellative of the modern Jeffreys, and now in the Legislature he cannot abandon his dictatorial tone. I need hardly add that that clause was stricken out by about two-thirds of the House.

The principal question that divides the House is whether it can make a law that shall apply to mortgages already made, or whether it can only act on future contracts. My opinion is, a bill will pass giving the year redemption, and made applicable to cases now in court. It will then be a question for the courts whether that much of the law is constitutional. Judge Hall, one of the ablest lawyers in the State, takes ground against the constitutionality of the measure, but the disposition to grant relief is so strong that the Constitution will be stretched to the verge of practical repudiation to help the unfortunate debtors. The law will pass giving redemptions for a year, by a large majority, so that it may stand, though the courts disregard the other. From present appearances a stay law, affecting executions, will also be passed.

RELIGIOUS AND CHURCH MATTERS.

The numerous Episcopalians here have been donated by the Town Company a block of fine lots in Denver City, upon which a commodious and magnificent church will be erected, and thus afford all the church-going advantages to our citizens that they could wish for in any of the cities of the States.

Rev. Mr. Kehler preached, on last Sabbath, to a very large and respectable audience of some two hundred of our best citizens, ladies and gentlemen, all of whom were exceedingly pleased and satisfied with his style, subject-matter and manners, as a Christian minister of tried experience and sound and sensible pulpit requirements. At present he occupies for his services the building of the Denver City Union School, until a better substitute is arranged for.

Some of our Denver City capitalists have come up to the work of church improvements very liberally and timely. Among the number is George D. Bayaud, Esq., a prominent merchant here, of French extraction, who has tendered some eight or ten hundred dollars towards the Episcopal Church enterprise, with the suggestion that the church shall always be free in pew arrangements, to all and each who may desire to attend its religious services.

Gen. R. B. Bradford, the largest wholesale merchant west of St. Louis, and a very public-spirited, liberal and prominent gentleman here, has also tendered five hundred dollars to the church enterprise.

OUR RELATIONS WITH MEXICO.

Text of the McLane-Ocampo Treaty.

TREATY OF PEACE AND COMMERCE BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND THE MEXICAN REPUBLIC.

ARTICLE I.

As an amplification of the eighth article of the treaty of the 30th of December, 1853, the Mexican Republic cedes to the United States and its citizens and property, in perpetuity, the right of way, by the Isthmus of Tehuantepec, from one ocean to the other, by any kind of road now existing, or that may hereafter exist, both Republics and their citizens enjoying it.

ARTICLE II.

Both Republics agree to protect all routes now existing, or that shall hereafter exist, over the said Isthmus, and to guarantee the neutrality of the same.

ARTICLE III.

Simultaneous with the first bona fide use of any route across the said Isthmus for purposes of actual transit, the Republic of Mexico shall establish two ports of deposit—the one on the east, the other on the west of the Isthmus. No duty shall be levied by the Government of Mexico upon foreign effects and merchandise which may pass bona fide by the said Isthmus, and which may not be intended for the consumption of the Mexican Republic. No incumbrance or tolls shall be imposed upon foreign persons and property which may pass by this road beyond those that may be imposed upon the persons and property of Mexicans. The Republic of Mexico will continue to allow the free and untrammeled transit of the mails of the United States, provided they pass in closed mail bags, and they be not for distribution on the road. Upon such mails none of the charges imposed, nor of those which may hereafter be imposed, shall be applied in any case.

ARTICLE IV.

The Mexican Republic agrees that it will establish for each of the two ports of deposit—the one on the east, the other on the west of the Isthmus—regulations that will permit the effects and merchandise belonging to citizens or subjects of the United States or of any foreign country to be entered and stored in warehouses, which shall be erected for that purpose, free of all tonnage or other duties whatever, except the necessary charges for cartage and storage, which said effects and merchandise may be subsequently withdrawn for transit across the said Isthmus, and for shipment from either of the said ports of deposit to any foreign port, free of all tonnage or other duties whatever; and they may likewise be withdrawn from the said warehouses for sale and consumption, within the territory of the Mexican Republic, on the payment of such duties or imposts as the said Mexican Government may be pleased to enact.

ARTICLE V.

The Republic of Mexico agrees that should it become necessary at any time to employ military forces for the security and protection of persons and property passing over any of the routes aforesaid, it will employ the requisite force for that purpose; but upon failure to do this, from any cause whatever, the Government of the United States may, with the consent, or at the request of the Government of Mexico, or of the Minister thereof at Washington, or of the competent legally appointed local authorities, civil or military, employ such force for this and for no other purpose; and when, in the opinion of the Government of Mexico, the necessity ceases, such force shall be immediately withdrawn.

In the exceptional case, however, of unforeseen or imminent danger to the lives or property of citizens of the United States, the forces of said Republic are authorized to act for their protection without such consent having been previously obtained; and such forces shall be withdrawn when the necessity for this employment ceases.

ARTICLE VI.

The Mexican Republic grants to the United States the simple transit of its troops, military stores and munitions of war by the Isthmus of Tehuantepec, and by the transit or route of communication referred to in this Convention from the city of Guaymas, on the Gulf of California, to the Rancho de Nogales, or some suitable point on the boundary line between the Republic of Mexico and the United States near the one hundred and eleventh degree west longitude from Greenwich, immediate notice thereof being given to the local authorities of the Republic of Mexico. And the two Republics agree, likewise, that it shall be an express stipulation, with the companies or enterprises to whom hereafter the carriage or transportation is granted, by any railroads or other means of communication, on the aforesaid transits, that the price for conveying the troops, military stores and munitions of war of the two Republics shall be, at most, one-half the ordinary fare paid by the passengers or merchandise which may pass over the said transits; it being understood that if the grantees of privileges already granted, or which hereafter may be granted, upon railroads or other means of conveyance over said transits, refuse to receive for one half the price of conveyance the troops, arms, military stores and munitions of the United States, the latter government will not impart to them the protection spoken of in articles second and fifth, nor any other protection.

ARTICLE VII.

The Mexican Republic hereby cedes to the United States in perpetuity, and to their citizens and property, the right of way or transit across the territory of the Republic of Mexico, from the cities of Camargo and Matamoras, or any suitable point on the Rio Grande, in the State of Tamaulipas, via Monterey, to the port of Mazatlan, at the entrance of the Gulf of California, in the State of Sinaloa, and from the Rancho de Nogales, or any suitable point on the boundary line between the Republic of Mexico and the United States, near the one hundred and eleventh degree, west longitude from Greenwich, via Magdalena and Hermosillo, to the City of Guaymas, on the Gulf of California, in the State of Sonora, over any railroad or route of communication, natural or artificial, which may now or hereafter exist or be constructed, to be used and enjoyed in the same manner and upon equal terms by both Republics, and their respective citizens, the Mexican Republic, reserving always for itself the right of sovereignty which it now has upon all the transits spoken of in the present Treaty. All the stipulations and regulations of every kind applicable to the right of way or transit across the Isthmus of Tehuantepec, that are or have been agreed upon between the two Republics, are hereby extended and applied to the foregoing transits or rights of way, excepting the right of passing troops, military stores, and munitions of war, from the Rio Grande to the Gulf of California.

ARTICLE VIII.

The two Republics likewise agree that, from the list of merchandise here annexed, the Congress of the United States shall select those which, being the natural, industrial, or manufactured product of either of the two Republics, may be admitted for sale and consumption in either of the two countries, under conditions of a perfect reciprocity, whether they be considered free of duty, or at a rate of duty to be fixed by the Congress of the United States; it being the intention of the Mexican Republic to admit the articles in question at the lowest rate of duty, and even free, if the Congress of the United States consents thereto. Their introduction from one to the other Republic shall be made at the points which the Governments of both Republics may fix upon, at the limits or boundaries thereof ceded and granted for the transits, and in perpetuity, by this Convention, either across the Isthmus of Tehuantepec or from the Gulf of California, to the interior frontier between Mexico and the United States. If any similar privileges should be granted by Mexico to other nations at the termini of the aforesaid transits upon the Gulfs of Mexico and California, and upon the Pacific Ocean, it shall be in consideration of the same conditions and stipulations of reciprocity which are imposed upon the United States by the terms of this Convention.

LIST OF MERCHANDISE ANNEXED TO ARTICLE 8.—Animals of all kinds; plows and loose iron bars; rice; poultry and fresh eggs; quicksilver; stone coal; fresh, salted, and smoked meats; wood and iron houses; raw hides; horns; chile or red pepper; drawings and models of large machinery, buildings, monuments, and boats; boats of all sizes and classes, for the navigation of the rivers on the frontier; brooms and mat rial for their manufacture; bridle bits; fresh, dried, and sugared fruits; type, spaces, plates for printing or engraving, rules, vignettes, and printing ink; printed books of all classes bound in paper, (pamphlet bound); hops; timber, unwrought, and firewood; butter and cheese; geographical and nautical maps and topographical plans; marble, wrought and unwrought; machines and implements for agriculture, farming, mining, for the development of the arts and sciences, and their fixtures, either loose or for their repair; dyewood; fish, tar, turpentine and ashes; plants, trees and shrubbery; slates for roofing purposes; common salt; riding-saddles; palm-leaf hats; plaster of paris, (gypsum); vegetables; undressed sheepskins; grain of all kinds, and from which bread is made; flour; wool; lard; tallow; leather, and manufactures of leather; every species of textile or woven fabric of cotton, excepting that called brown sheeting, montalriguena.

ARTICLE IX.

As an amplification of the fourteenth and fifteenth Articles of the treaty of the fifth of April, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, in which, that which relates to the exercise of their religion by the citizens of Mexico was stipulated, the citizens of the United States will be permitted to exercise freely in Mexico their religion, either in public or in private, within their houses or in the churches and places which may be assigned to worship, as a consequence of the perfect equality and reciprocity which the second Article of the same treaty states was taken for its basis. The chapels or places for public worship may be purchased, and shall be held as the property of those who may purchase them, as any other common property is purchased or held, excepting therefrom, however, the religious communities and corporations to whom the present laws of Mexico have prohibited entirely and forever and a day the obtaining and holding anything whatever in propriety. In no case shall citizens of the United States residing in Mexico be subject to have forced loans levied upon them.

ARTICLE X.

In consideration of the foregoing stipulations, and in compensation for the revenue surrendered by Mexico on the goods and merchandise transported free of duty through the territory of that Republic, the Government of the United States agrees to pay to the Government of Mexico the sum of $4,000,000, of which two millions shall be paid immediately upon the exchange of the ratifications of this treaty, and the remaining two millions shall be retained by the Government of the United States for the payment of the claims of citizens of the United States against the Government of the Republic of Mexico, for injuries already inflicted, and which may be proven to be just, according to the law and usage of nations and the principles of equity; and the same shall be paid pro rata, as far as the said sum of two millions will permit, in pursuance of a law to be enacted by the Congress of the United States for the adjudication thereof, and the remainder of this sum shall be returned to Mexico by the United States, in case there be any such remainder after the payment of the claims thus found to be just.

ARTICLE XI.

This Treaty shall be ratified by the President of the United States, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate of the United States, and by the President of Mexico, in virtue of his extraordinary and actual executive functions, and the respective ratifications shall be exchanged at the city of Washington, within the exact period of six months from the date of its signature, or sooner if possible, or at the seat of the Constitutional Government, if any alterations or amendments be proposed by the President and Senate of the United States, and accepted by the President of the Republic of Mexico.

CONVENTIONAL ARTICLES BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AND THE REPUBLIC OF MEXICO TO ENFORCE TREATY STIPULATIONS, MAINTAIN ORDERS, &c.

Whereas, In consequence of the existing civil war in Mexico, and particularly in view of the disturbed condition of the inland frontier of Mexico and the United States, occasions may arise when the forces of the two Republics may find it necessary to act in concert and co-operation to enforce treaty stipulations and to maintain order and security in the territory of either Republic; wherefore the following Convention has been agreed upon.

ARTICLE I.

If any of the stipulations of existing treaties between Mexico and the United States are violated, or the safety and security of the citizens of either Republic are endangered within the territory of the other, and the legitimate and acknowledged Government thereof may be unable, from any cause, to enforce such stipulations or to provide for such safety and security, it shall be obligatory on that Government to seek the aid of the other in maintaining their due execution, as well as order and security in the territory of that Republic, where such violation and discord occur; and in every such special case the expenses shall be paid by the treasury of the nation within whose territory such intervention may become necessary; and if disorder shall occur on the frontier of the two Republics, the authorities of the two Republics nearest to the place where the disorder exists, shall act in concert and co-operation for the arrest and punishment of the criminals who have disturbed the public order and security of either Republic, and for this purpose the parties guilty of these offences may be arrested within either Republic and delivered over to the authorities of that Republic within which the crime may have been committed; the nature and character of such intervention, as well as the expense thereof, and the manner of arresting and subjecting to punishment the said criminals, shall be determined and regulated by an agreement between the executive branches of the two Governments.

ARTICLE II.

This Convention shall be ratified by the President of the United States, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate of the United States, and by the President of Mexico, in virtue of his extraordinary and actual executive functions, and the respective ratifications shall be exchanged at the City of Washington within the exact period of six months from the date of its signature, or sooner if possible, or at the seat of the Constitutional Government if any alterations or amendments be proposed by the President and Senate of the United States, and accepted by the President of the Republic of Mexico.

One Union Man in Mississippi.

The editor of the Brandon (Miss.) Republican thus defines his position on the Disunion question:

If all leave this State but us, then we will order an election for all offices and go and vote for ourself for Governor. Then we will be commander-in-chief of the army and navy of the State of Mississippi, and also editor and proprietor of the Brandon Republican. If we can't find anybody in the State to read it, we will issue it regularly every Thursday morning and sit down and read it ourself, (believing it the duty of every sensible man to read a good paper.) If we should at any time get too cold we will read our fire-eating, blood-and-thunder exchanges on file. If the Democracy should happen to leave any of their friends in the asylum and penitentiary at Jackson, we would do the best we could with them, and, as soon as practicable, send them on to them rejoicing. We could easily escape the debts of the State by publishing that a vote of the people would be taken at a given time to see if they should be paid, and then we would go and vote no. We could attend to all the offices in the State and do very well at it. If a Commissioner at any time should pass through the State on his way to ask advice of Old Virginia, we would treat him well and send by him for some tobacco. We would read once every week Washington's Farewell Address, and Jackson's Proclamation, Nullification Message and Farewell Address. We would read and study the Holy Bible, and pray for the Democracy six times a day, and spend our days in publishing a Union paper.

Outrage at a Funeral.

A young married woman named Catherine Garlow, of German parentage, and Catholic faith, died on Friday last, after giving birth to a dead born infant. The mother and child were placed in one coffin, and taken, prior to interment, to the Catholic Church on Sunday where a funeral service was pronounced by Rev. Mr. O'Connor, who has the pastoral charge of the flock at this place.

At the conclusion of the service, the coffin was opened to allow those present to take a last look at the remains, when the priest, discovering the child in the burial case with the mother, ordered, in an excited tone, that it be taken out assigning as a reason that it had not been baptised, and if buried with the mother would send her to perdition; that such an outrage was a disgrace to the Church, &c. The relatives of the deceased woman interposed, and insisted that they should be buried together.

The reverend father here grew highly excited claimed that the corpse was now in his power, slammed down the lid of the coffin, and pushed back the mother of the dead woman with such force that she would have fallen over had she not been caught. He also made towards the husband of the deceased woman, and some one who was present says he actually struck him. A tremendous uproar ensued. The friends of the deceased were naturally indignant and gesticulated and vociferated in an excited manner. Woman screaming from the church, and the utmost confusion prevailed.

A near relative of the deceased, in his forgetfulness, while taking care of his fainting wife, put his hat on his head, when it was immediately knocked off by the priest. Finally, in the midst of din, the coffin was carried out by some of the relatives, placed in the hearse and driven home.

On the following day (Monday) the mother and child were buried in Mahoning Cemetery, on the west side of the river, attended to the grave by a large number of citizens. The funeral services were delivered by Rev. L. B. Wilson, of the Presbyterian Church, and the mother and child now sleep calmly together.

Other stories, well accredited, of the bigotry and intolerance which have characterized the administration of Father O'Connor, since his advent here, are current. Only a week or two since, a Catholic woman, through his influence, was coerced into her deserting her Protestant husband, under the belief that her soul could not be saved if she continued to live with him. Another instance of priestly assumption was that of inflicting a severe personal chastisement with a leathern strap, upon a woman of his own congregation found under the influence of liquor. This, are told, is a common occurrence, of its perpetuation in one instance we have the testimony of eye-witnesses.—Mahoning (O.) Register, Feb. 9.

How Col. Fremont was Defeated.

Mr. Megargee, of Philadelphia, testified before the Printing Investigating Committee of the Senate, on Saturday, that he received between four and five thousand dollars from Mr. Wendell in 1856, for the purpose of organizing a third party in Pennsylvania preceding the Gubernatorial and Presidential elections, which the Democracy regarded as imperatively necessary to secure the state for Mr. Buchanan. That money was applied to the object. This fact establishes that the public money derived from printing and other jobs and assessments in departments, was used to start the Fillmore movement on a practical basis, which was afterwards rendered formidable by contributions from New York, through which the side-door operations were managed and Mr. Fremont defeated. Movements are now on foot to repeat this game next fall, but with less prospect of success.—N. Y. Tribune.

ATTEMPT TO LYNCH A PENNSYLVANIAN IN VIRGINIA.—Great excitement was occasioned in the western part of Washington county, Pa., a few days ago, by an attempt on the part of a number of citizens of Marshall county, Va., to hang a young man named Albert Patterson, of West Finley township, Washington county, for giving too free an expression of his sentiments upon John Brown and Gov. Wise. It appears that Patterson had been invited to a wood chopping in the village of West Union, in Marshal county, Va., just over the Pennsylvania line. In the course of the evening, among other topics of conversation, the Harper's Ferry raid was introduced, Mr. Patterson remarking in that connection that he considered "old Brown a fool and Gov. Wise no better."

At this the young Virginians present became greatly enraged, declaring vengeance against him for his treasonable declaration, and calling out, "let's hang him," &c. Accordingly three of them seized hold of him, and throwing a rope around his neck, were to all appearances about to put their threats into execution; but fortunately for Mr. Patterson, just at that moment a couple of young men from the Pennsylvania side of the line were passing, on their way to singing school in the immediate vicinity, and hearing the struggle, rushed into the house and relieved him. Bad not this timely assistance been afforded, there is no telling what might have been the result, as Mr. P., when released from his assailants had already been choked until he was black in the face.

When the occurrence was mentioned at the singing school, which was only at the other end of the village, it gave rise to considerable excitement, and a number of West Finley boys—neighbors of Mr. Patterson, who is a peaceable and inoffensive young man—being present; it was with some difficulty they were prevented from taking summary vengeance upon the perpetrators of the outrage. Fortunately, however, prudent counsels prevailed, and in all probability a sanguinary conflict prevented.

GOOD SKATING.—A fifteen mile skating match took place at Portsmouth, N. H., on Thursday last. James Ayres made the distance in forty-seven minutes; George W. Marston in forty-seven minutes, six seconds; and Jacob Haddock in fifty minutes. Ayers and Marston each skated one mile in 2.30—which is within a quarter of a second of Flora Temple's best time.

STEEL ENGRAVINGS
—OF—
WASHINGTON AND EVERETT!
Including a View of Mt. Vernon
In the Engraving of Washington. These splendid engravings are from the original paintings by Hicks, and are engraved on steel in the highest style of Art. They are each 25x35 inches, each containing SIX SQUARE FEET. So many coarse, miserable pictures have been palmed upon the public as works of art—and especially in cheap, black and muddy engravings,—that it is difficult to convince persons of taste that they are safe in ordering what they have not first seen. We have paid the first artists their own prices amounting to MANY THOUSAND DOLLARS, to produce Engravings REALLY BEAUTIFUL, as well as the best portraits, and that shall be Splendid Ornaments to any Parlor. Opinions that can be relied on:
☞ The Editor of the New York Observer says:—"These engravings are genuine works of art—the likenesses admirable. The portrait of Mr. Everett will take precedence of all others."
☞ They New York Christian Advocate says:—"They are among the finest engravings we have ever seen, and the PUBLISHERS ARE FULLY RESPONSIBLE FOR ALL THEY PROMISE."
TERMS, ALMOST GRATIS.
We will send, Post Paid, securely packed in rollers—
EITHER ENGRAVING and a $3 Magazine, 1 year, for $3

SOYER'S SULTANA SAUCE
For Hot and Cold Dishes of all kinds. This most delicious and appetising sauce invented by the renowned "Soyer," for the London Reform Club, is, since his decease, manufactured by the well known house of Crosse & Blackwell, London, from the original recipe. It is the favorite sauce in England, and on the Continent, with a high and growing reputation among American Epicures, and is much approved of as a stimulent to the appetite and to digestion.
OPINIONS OF THE LONDON PRESS.
"We recommend our correspondent to try Mons. Soyer's new Sauce, entitled the 'Sultana sauce.' It is made after the Turkish recipe; its flavor is excellent, and it affords considerable aid in cases of slow and weak digestion."—Lancet.
"Savory, Piquant and Spicy, worthy the genius of Soyer."—Observer.
"A most valuable adjunct to Fish, Flesh, and Fowl, and should have a place on every table."—Atlas.

THE GREATEST WONDER OF THE NINETEENTH CENTURY.

Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative.

Says the St. Louis, Mo., Democrat: Below we publish a letter to Dr. Wood, of this city, from a gentleman in Maine, which speaks glowingly of the superior merits of his hair tonic. Such evidence must have its effect, when coming from a reliable source. If certificates are guarantees of truth, the Dr. needs no encomiums, nor useless puffery from the press:

BATH, MAINE, Jan. 10, 1858.

Professor O. J. Wood & Co.—Gentlemen: Having my attention called a few months since to the highly beneficial effects of your hair restorative, I was induced to make application of it upon my own hair, which had become quite grey, probably one-third white; my whiskers were of same character. Some three months since I procured a bottle of your hair restorative, and used it. I soon found it was proving what I had wished. I used it about twice a week. I have since procured another bottle, of which I have used some. I can now certify to the world that the grey or white hair has totally disappeared, both on my head and face, and my hair has resumed its natural color, and I believe more soft and glossy than it has been before for twenty-five years. I am now sixty years old; my good wife at the age of fifty-two years, has used it with the same effect. The above notice I deem due to you for your valuable discovery. I am assured that whoever will rightly use, as per directions, will not have occasion to contradict my statements. I am a citizen of this city and a resident here for the last fifteen years, and am known to nearly every one here and adjoining towns. Any use you may make of the above, with my name attached, is at your service, as I wish to preserve the beauties of nature in others as well as myself. I am truly yours

A. C. RAYMOND.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 23, 1858.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1854, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation and found it to answer as the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.

FINLEY JOHNSON.

The undersigned, Rev. J. K. Bragg, is a minister in regular standing, and pastor of the Orthodox Church at Brookfield, Mass. He is a gentleman of great influence and universally beloved.

WM. DYER.

BROOKFIELD, Jan. 12, 1858.

Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having made a trial of your Hair Restorative, it gives me pleasure to say that its effect has been excellent in removing inflammation, dandruff and a constant tendency to itching with which I have been troubled from my childhood; and has also restored my hair which was becoming grey, to its original color. I have used no other article with anything like the same pleasure or profit. Yours truly,

J. K. BRAGG.

THE PSALMIST,

WITH MUSIC.

ANNUAL FOR THE SERVICE OF SACRED SONG IN BAPTIST CONGREGATIONS AND CHOIRS.

COLLATED BY B. F. EDMANDS,

Conductor of Music at the Baldwin place Church, Boston.

ROYAL 12MO., EMBOSSED CLOTH, $1.00.

This Manual is pronounced by competent judges superior to any collection of Sacred Music now in use. It is particularly rich in the good old tunes, embalmed in the praises of the sanctuary, dear to aged saints and hallowed in the memories of childhood. It contains every hymn of the Psalmist, the Hymn Book now in with the same numbering, and every hymn has one or more tunes attached to it. It is more convenient in size, and cheaper in price than any similar Manual, and is adapted to the use of Choirs as well as Congregations. Our Churches can now introduce at small expense, for the old editions of the PSALMIST will retain all their value, and only those will need to purchase the new edition, who wish to have the tunes before them in singing.

PERSONAL.

Macaulay's father was the son of a Scottish Presbyterian minister. His mother was a schoolmistress at Bristol. Her maiden name was Mills; she was the daughter of a Quaker, and being trained under the care of the Misses More, (Hannah More and her sisters) was an accomplished and instructed woman for her class. Thus, says an English writer, by distant streams, the blood of professors in two of the most severe and chastened sects in Europe, Covenanter and Quaker, met in the veins of the wonderful boy.

—Richard Realf, late "Secretary of State" of John Brown's Provisional Government, is lecturing in Cleveland, on "Poets and Poetry."

—Mr. Speaker Pennington denies having had anything to do with the payment of Mr. Clay's debts, as stated by a correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial. He neither saw the money collected for the purpose, nor paid it out. The story is a fabrication.

—The Washington Correspondent of the Springfield (Mass.) Republican writes:

"Depend upon it, Forney knows what he is about, and he does not meditate the betrayal of the men who so nobly conquered their prejudices, and made him Clerk of the House of Representatives. He remembers the history of the past two years, and will not forget that in his recent contest for the Clerkship, his old friend, for whom he has labored so decidedly, Mr. Douglas, used all his influence against him, and actually cut him before the whole House, when he, (Forney,) came to his desk to be sworn in. There stood Douglas, sober, saucy, and a little soured at Forney's election. He was near the Clerk's desk, and stood alone, no one near him, in utter silence. Forney came within a few feet of him—the two men looked at each other—and they had not seen each other that day—but the Douglas—the black Douglas—held an unruffled countenance—there was not the slightest inclination of his head. Why was it that the short, stocky, bull-like Senator, cut his old friend? Out of pure, unmitigated, unadulterated selfishness. Forney's election would prejudice Douglas at the South, among the men who have for two years abused him day and night. Instead of rejoicing at this terrible rebuke of the Administration, Douglas, fearing for himself, is angry at Forney for not allowing himself to be crushed by the ambition of his late friend and neighbor."

—A report comes by way of Charleston, S. C., that Dan. E. Sickles, the hero of last winter's tragedy at Washington, has experienced a change of heart and intends to join some church. He is said to lead a different life from what he once did.

—Mary Wilson, white woman of Adairsville, Ga., was recently arrested at Chattanooga for trying to run off a negro. She was in man's apparel. Whether she wanted to free or sell the darkey does not appear.

—There is a gossip in New York city that a niece of Mayor Wood is about to follow Miss Bartlett's famous example in marrying a Cuban millionaire.

A clerk in a New York wholesale store, where southern patronage is courted, has been discharged simply because he would read the Tribune. The name of the firm is not given, as yet, but it should be. Southern editors will want it to head their "white lists."

George W. Shaw, a faithful porter in the Market bank, New York, committed suicide in an ante-room of the building, last Saturday afternoon, by taking laudanum. The suicide of one of the clerks in the institution, last month, so weighed upon his mind as to lead him, also, to commit self destruction.

At the last election the sheriff of Tioga county, N. Y., took a prisoner to the polls to vote. Gov. Morgan has since removed him from office, holding that the person was deprived of his civil rights at the time, and should not therefore, have been permitted to exercise any part of them.

—One day last week in the Maine Legislature there was an interesting exhibition, by a procession through the Senate Chamber and Representatives Hall of eight giant men, viz.: Gen. Henry P. Cotton, Sheriff of Lincoln county, 291 lbs.; N. A. Farwell, of Rockland, 235; Sumner Whitney, of Presque Isle, of the Senate, 262; Samuel C. Hamilton, of Biddeford, of the House, 235; Raymond S. Rich, of Thorndike, of the House, 254; Enos Phinney, of Jay, of the House, 254; Mr. Morrison, of Farmington, 250; and J. W. Davis, of East New Portland, 245.

—According to the Richmond correspondent of the Petersburg (Va.) News, John Minor Botts speaks thus of Mr. Memminger's speech: "Fifty-four years ago, Aaron Burr was tried for his life in the same Hall for being suspected of holding the same views and advocating the same cause Mr. Memminger has substantially urged, and been respectfully listened to—to wit: to dissolve the Union, and establish a Southern Confederacy."

—Hon. Will. Cumback, owing to pressing private business, which will require all his time and attention, declines being a candidate for the nomination for Lieut. Governor, in the Indiana Republican State Convention, to be held on the 22d inst.

ONWARD!—When Gov. Banks was elected Speaker, he received 103 votes. Gov. Pennington received 117. At that time, there were 14 Republican Senators; now there are 24. Thus we have gained 14 Representatives and 10 Senators.

MRS. BEECHER.—This lady is now considered out of danger, having been much easier for the past two days. She is in as good a condition as can be expected under the circumstances.—N. Y. Express.

MISCELLANEOUS.

—The New York Courier and Enquirer has pronounced in favor of W. H. Seward, and declares that should either Bell, Crittenden, or Bates "ask to become the standard-bearer in the name of the Republican party, it must respectfully decline the honor intended to be conferred upon it, and bolts in advance."

—There seems to be a universal infelicity in terming wars waged between factions of one country civil, unless it is done on the principle lucus a non lucendo.—N. Y. Post.

ABOLISHING THE GRAND JURY.—The Legislature of Michigan, some months since, enacted a law which virtually abolishes the grand jury system, in allowing indictments upon information. Vermont has also passed an enactment having the same end in view, and the proper committee of the Wisconsin Senate has been instructed, by a unanimous vote, to bring in a similar bill.

—The correspondent of a morning paper states that the volunteer corps of England are progressing with astonishing strides. This speaks badly for their commanding officers.—N. Y. Post.

—The season for excavation in search of antiquities at Rome has commenced with great activity. The discovery of the Venus in the Gardens of the Cæsars, and the high price which the owner of it received from Russia, have excited many persons to seek for an equally profitable chance. The Chevalier Guldi has just commenced digging in the vineyard Manzani, not far from the place where the statue of Venus was found, and some remarkable objects have already been discovered, which proves that this mine of curiosities has not yet been exhausted.

—Everybody knows the Hebrews at Rome are confined to a "Jews' Quarter," called the Ghetto; their minds are imprisoned in a moral Ghetto, they are forbidden to learn any of the arts, or sciences, or letters, or even to exercise any of the mechanical arts, and they are forbidden to sing or to play on any musical instrument. Yet these oppressors are the fellows who yell so loudly if in our common schools their children are made to recite the Lord's Prayer or the Ten Commandments! Gibbon never wrote a truer remark than "the banners of the Church of Rome have never been found on the side of the people." These banners float only over priests and oppressors.

—There have been $1,813,094 expended on the Central Park, New York, and $2,500,000 will be required to complete the work.

—A widow at Winsted, C. W., whose dear departed left her the life use of $1,400, so long as she remained unmarried, but which was to go to a third party at her marriage, has, after several years' siege, succumbed. A compromise was effected between herself and ultimate legatees, by which they received the $1,400 by paying her $650 to get married.

—Two elegant swords, one for Napoleon and the other for the King of Sardinia, have been bought at Rome by the subscription of 20,000 persons in that city. But the Pope forbids a public presentation of them, and they hang on exhibition in the artist's windows, silent preachers of Italian independence to admiring crowds.

—The proprietors of a large iron works in this city are represented to have offered to furnish steam carriages for common roads, after a pattern, which has been amply tested, and to guarantee a performance of twelve miles an hour on common roads, up hill and down. It is believed that one of these carriages would run well on the overland route between Missouri and the Pacific. Several lines of steam carriages have been run in England and Scotland, and with entire success, but they encountered violent opposition; the roads were obstructed with broken stones, and they met with so many accidents that their proprietors were obliged to abandon the enterprise. In this country there would be no such obstacles, and the experiment ought to be fairly tried.—N. Y. Courier.

—It is stated that there is a man in Boston who takes a bath on one of the wharves regularly every day at five A. M. and five P. M. When there is no ice he dives from a boat; if frozen over, he places a carpet on the ice and goes in where there is an opening. He has done this at times during the winter when the thermometer has stood eight degrees below zero. He does it for his health, and is rapidly recovering under this treatment. His disease is dyspepsia, and he has been nearly a year in the Massachusetts Hospital.

—It is stated that the Emperor Napoleon has made an appropriation of five millions of dollars for the improvement of the Canals of the south of France, from Marseilles to Bordeaux. They are to be widened to twenty-six yards, and deepened to sixteen and a half feet. When completed, the passage to the Mediterranean, now made through the Straits of Gibraltar, and which takes two months, will be accomplished by this route in ten days.

—While on a recent visit to the old chapter house of the Cheshire Cathedral, England, the Hon. Robert C. Winthrop, of Boston, saw two standards, somewhat battered and torn, suspended over the doors. On inquiry, he was told that they were the standards of the Cheshire regiment, and that they were used in America, at a certain battle called Bunker Hill, where, it was said, only three of the regiments escaped without injury of some sort. The keeper said that it was understood that the Americans got behind some sort of fence or ledge, where they could shoot others without being hit themselves.

HUMOROUS.

A CINCINNATI DUEL.—Mr. Justice McFall of one of the Cincinnati Courts, being insulted by a lawyer in a certain court, took him by the nape of the neck and kicked him out of the court room. So the matter rested until Monday, when a military-looking gentleman waited upon the magistrate with the following cartel:

CINCINNATI, Feb. 15, 1860.

J. J. MCFALL, Esq.:—Are you willing to cross over into Kentucky, to receive a communication from the writer? The stringent laws against dueling prevent me from being more explicit.

Yours respectfully.

In which was inclosed a dilapidated card, bearing the name of "J. H. Lewis, Attorney, &c." To this warlike document the Squire, nothing daunted, returned the following:

CINCINNATI, Feb. 15, 1860.

Col. J. H. LEWIS—Sir:—Yours of this date has been duly received and contents noted. I object to your card on the ground of its uncleanness. If you will furnish one fit for gentlemen to handle, I will take the matter under profound consideration. I would further state, for your information, that should I fight you, the weapons will be two steam fire engines—the ground, Fifth-street Market-space, and the time, 5 o'clock in the morning.

With sentiments of profound respect, I am

Yours indignantly,
JOHN J. MCFALL.

WHAT THEY "RAISE" UP NORTH.—The La Crosse Democrat has the following:

Last week one of our Eastern friends coming down from St. Paul, stopped at Winona over night. Being a stranger, he inquired of the landlord "what kind of land they had back on the prairie?"

"D——d splendid land, sir!"

"And what kind of country have you back on the bluff?"

"D——d splendid country, sir!"

"And what do you raise mostly round here?"

"We raise h—ll!"

—Governor Chase tells the story that when Lieut. Gov. Newman of Tennessee, was in Cincinnati with the Kentucky and Tennessee Legislatures, he was accompanied by his "body servant," a sprightly, saddle-colored "boy" of about thirty, who was conscious of his dignity. His master, who was in the habit of jesting with him familiarly, accosted him in the hall of the Neil House, just before the departure of the guests, with a "Why, Jack, havn't any of the Abolitionists carried you off yet?" "Yah! yah! Mass' Newman, (quoth Jack) when I seed you gwine down de street arm in arm wid Gubner Dennison and Gubner Chase, I tot you were gone, sure—yah! yah!"

"WATCH AND PRAY."—Mr. Adams went one time to Milford to preach, and stopped at the house of a Miss M——, a friend of his. The day was cold, and when he arrived at night he was cold and tired; so he proposed to have prayers at once, and then, after supper, he could retire. The supper was to consist of—what he was very fond of—Indian cakes, which were baking on platters set up in front of the fire.

The family were called together, Mr. Adams' seat being directly opposite the kitchen door and fire. The services commenced, but Mr. Adams soon perceived that one of the cakes had fallen down and was burning. Stopping in his prayer, he said to the lady: "Miss M——, we are told to watch as well as pray, and I see that one of the cakes is burning. I will thank you to see to it." Which being done, he resumed his prayer.

POSTINGS.—A returned Californian has a right to rest upon his ore.

A sea of troubles—the Papacy.

Most ministers are poor, but every Episcopalian clergyman has a surplus.

When a man has bitten off another's nose or ear, is it proper to bind him over to keep the peace?

Some of Stewart's clerks had a grand turn out on New Year's day.

The execution of the Maine law has always occasioned a fine flow of spirits.

Fugitive slaves are like popular plays—because they have a run for a number of nights.

Pugilism is, like the ocean, full of breakers o'head.

Buchanan at Church.

A Washington letter writer saw Mr. Buchanan at church a few Sundays since. He says:

I was somewhat amused, notwithstanding the sacredness of the place, when the minister "gave out" the Psalm, and Old Buck, who was in the pew in front of me, turning over his book, stopped at the following lines:

Lord, what a thoughtless wretch was I
To mourn and murmur and repine,
To see the wicked, placed on high,
In pride and robes of honor shine!
But oh their end, their dreadful end!
Thy sanctuary taught me so;
On slippery rocks I see them stand,
And fiery billows roll below.

A MAN COMES TO LIFE AT HIS OWN FUNERAL.—The Louisville Democrat says:

We are informed of a curious circumstance that took place last week up town. Saturday the papers contained an obituary notice of the death of a Mr. Morris, and an invitation to his friends to attend his funeral from the corner of Market and Brook streets. Saturday morning the hearse and carriages were at the door. The body of the dead man had been clothed in the funeral raiment, and inclosed in a coffin. Numbers of friends had assembled. Suddenly the man in the coffin gave signs of life. Rumor states that he kicked the coffin lid off. At any rate he was saved from a death by burial alive, and is doing well. It is said that he took laudanum Friday, whether by accident or purposely we know not, and was thrown into a stupor in which he was nearly entombed.

—Two of the oldest newspapers in Germany, the Gazettes of Leipsic and Rostook, celebrated, on New Year's Day, the former its 200th, and the latter its 150th birthday. As a souvenir of the occasion, the Leipsic Gazette presented to its subscribers fac-similes of its publication on the 1st of January, 1660 and 1760, respectively.

THE LAKE SUPERIOR TRADE.—Among the propeller lines from this city to Lake Superior for the coming season will be one formed by the first-class propellers Northern Light and Fountain City. The propeller Kenosha will also run in the same trade from Cleveland.—Cleveland Review.

Financial and Commercial.

MONETARY.

FRIDAY EVENING, February 17, 1860.

The money market does not show a symptom of change from day to day. The banks have an abundance of money, but find very few opportunities to employ it safely and profitably. Mercantile trade and railway traffic are fair for the season; but the usual answer from bankers to our queries is, "[illegible] doing, no change." This report has been tolerably uniform since exchange dropped to two per cent. prem., where it still remains. Both the demand and the supply are light.

Gold 2@2½ with slight demand.

In Cincinnati and St. Louis the money market remains as at our former quotations.

IRRESPONSIBLE BANKS.—The following banks in Wisconsin are represented by the Comptroller of that State as being irresponsible: Bank of Montello, no office; Frontier, Citizens' and Mechanics' Banks, do; no business except to issue notes for circulation; also Bank of North America, purporting to hail from Grand Rapids, but whose President and Cashier live in Cook County, Ill. The Bank of Oconto, Arctic, Bank of Appleton, Chippewa Bank, Clark County Bank, Corn Planters' Bank, Farmers' Bank of Two Rivers, Green Bay Stock Bank, St. Croix Valley Bank, the Oconto Bank and the Tradesmans' Bank, likewise evade or violate the Banking law by having no place of business, or banking house.

The banks thus proscribed have an aggregate circulation of $1,832,150. There is danger of loss to holders of these bills, should there be a considerable decline of the market value of their stocks deposited as securities, their owners having no capital invested in the business, and residing mostly out of the State. There are probably other banks in the same condition.

ITEMS FROM THE ANNUAL REPORT OF THE MILWAUKEE AND MISSISSIPPI R. R. CO.—The annual report of the Milwaukee & Mississippi R. R. Co., for the year ending the 31st of December, has just been published, and from it we glean a few particulars:

The whole length of road in operation is 234.41-100 miles. The amount of capital stock subscribed is 38,106 shares, or $3,810,600.00, all of which is paid but $123,787.34. The whole cost of the road, including discount on bonds, loss on stock hypothecated, interest, ferry boats at Praire du Chien, and everything, is $8,125,839.17. The amount of indebtedness is $4,798,705.57. The amount due the corporation is $78,783.36. The earnings of the road for the year have been $746,498.78. The total expenses incurred in operating the road, and interest, have been $961,274.04. Deducting the earnings as above, and it leaves a deficiency for current year of $214,775.26. The wages of employees for the year amount to $261,019 78, which amount is embraced in the foregoing statements. The receipts of the company for the year have been $876,658.21. The total payments during the year have been $860,291 35. This with the amounts due from agents and other companies, the balances in hands of paymaster and others, and the funds in hands of Treasurer, foots up the annual receipts as already stated, amounting to $876,653.21. There have been 12,598 through passengers transported, on whom the rate per mile is 2 54-100 cents, and 123,761 way passengers, on whom the rate per mile is 3.34-100 cents. The receipts of Hogs, live and dressed, to-day amounted to 491. The demand for dressed Hogs was active, and the market was 5@10c better—sales of common to fair ranging from $6.50@7.00.

Provisions were inactive; but holders of all kinds of product are very firm. Mess Pork cannot be bought below $17.00; and there are plenty of buyers of Bulk Meats at 6¼c and 8½c packed, but no sellers. Lard is in good demand at 10½c. Tallow firm at 10@10½c.

The Flour market was quiet but firm, with sales at $4.65@4.75 for fair Spring Extras, and $4.12½ for good Spring Super. A contract was closed to-day for 1,000 brls of choice Wisconsin Spring Extra, at $5.00, to be delivered between the 1st and 15th April. The Wheat market was considerably easier, and sales were more freely made at 96c for No. 2 Spring in store. The Corn market was excited, and advanced 1½c above the highest figures paid yesterday. At the close, however, the market became considerably weaker, and it was difficult to sell at the extreme figures paid on 'Change. Oats were also in good request and advanced 1@2c, with sales at 33½@34c for No. 1 in store, and 37@37½c on track. Rye and Barley unchanged. Timothy Seed in good demand and firm. Clover Seed dull.

ST. LOUIS, 16.—The Republican of yesterday says:

PORK—We have had an active and firm market throughout, with a further strengthening tendency. Sales of Monday embraced 550 and 1,600 brls mess, to arrive, at $17.40; 102 do at $17.50; 300 do. on board, at $17.62½; 200 also to arrive, 300 brls mess at $17.25; 150 brls M. O. at $16.25; 35 do rumps at $11.75, and 200 brls do, to arrive, at $12 ℔ brl. Yesterday were 1,200 brls mess, to arrive, at $16.50; about 350 brls, in lots, here, at $17.50; 120 do city mess to fill an order, at $17.75; 51 brls M. and M. O. at $17.25, delivered on board; 43 bels rumps at $12.50 ℔ brl. At the close we hear of small order sales of mess at $17.75; 50 brls M. O., to arrive, $16.50; 100 tcs hams in pickle, to arrive at 8½c.

CUT MEATS—Have been firm like all classes of provisions. Transactions have been only partly reported, and consist of (sold Monday) 8,000 shoulders, in bulk, at 6¼c; 8,000 hams at 8½c, and 1,700 sides at 8½c, delivered here on the opening of navigation.

BACON—The market has maintained the utmost firmness throughout, with fair sales of shoulders at 7½c; ribbed sides 9½c; clear sides 10¢, and hams 10¢@11c; also loose shoulders at 7½c, and plain hams 10c. To day 50 casks shoulders at 7½c; 2,000 pcs do at 7½c, loose; 6 casks clear sides at 10½c; 500 canvassed hams at 10½c per lb.

LARD—To-day, 2,500 tierces, at Quincy, private. Previously about 800 packages sold at 9½c for head; prime, to arrive, at 10c; same on immediate delivery at 10½c, and kegs at 11½c.

BEEF—Sales of prime at $7 per bbl, and mess at $10.

DETROIT, Feb. 16.—The Free Press of yesterday says:

Receipts to-day 285 brls flour, 300 bu wheat, 283 bu corn, 787 bu oats. Flour is very dull, and none sells except to the retail trade, where extras continue to bring $5@5.25. Wheat is not quite so firm as heretofore, although prices continue almost wholly nominal. The outside figure for extra white is $1.25, and for No. 1 red $1.15. Millers are buying white at $1.20@1.22. Corn is looking down, 55c being now the outside figure. No sales were reported yesterday. Cob is worth 47@50c by the quantity. Oats are not quite so firm, 36c being now about all that buyers are willing to pay. Barley is rather dull at old rates, and [illegible] in moderate request at 63c.

CINCINNATI—Feb. 16.—The Gazette of yesterday says:

Mess pork is held firmly at $17.50 for country and $18 for new. There was a sale of 1,000 brls on private terms. Rump pork brought $12. Bulk meats were in active request, and for future delivery an advance of ¼ was established, closing at 6¼ and 8¾ for shoulders and sides. About 600,000 lbs sold. There was also a sale of shoulders for April delivery, at 7c. On the spot shoulders brought 6¾. Bacon was in active request, with sales of sides at 9¾ on the spot, 9¾ for March 10th, and 10c for the last half of April. Holders were offish, and buyers rather keen. The former think 8 and 10c for shoulders and sides will soon be established, and they are, therefore, in no hurry to realize. Nothing done in lard. Flour was dull and heavy, at $5.55@5.65 for superfine. Wheat firm with a fair demand. No change in other grains. Groceries in fair demand. The market for whisky was tame at 20¼.

Since writing the above we heard of a sale of 50 hhds. clear bacon sides, deliverable in March, at 11c.

The receipts and exports of leading articles at this port to-day were:

To-day was one of the dullest days in the wheat market since the opening of the year. The sales in all did not much exceed 2000 bushels. No. 1 declined 1c, selling at 98c in store, and 99c delivered. Extra held out at previous prices, $1.02@1.03, but was extremely dull. A great deal of uncertainty exists as to the future course of the market, and although occasionally there are parties bold enough to take heavy risks on the chances of high prices, it cannot be concealed that there is a general distrust in the maintenance of present prices, and hence the unsettled feeling which has restricted business more or less for some time past.

Flour was dull, owing to the depressed state of the New York market, and the tendency was downward although no sales occurred upon which we could fix an actual decline. The sales reported on 'change were 200 bbls at $3.50@4.50 for common superfine to good country extra. Coarse grains of all kinds are dull, but without any essential change in prices. Hides steady. Hogs and provisions firm. Dressed Hogs—Sales: 2 hogs averaging 280 lbs at $5.75; 44 hogs averaging 250 lbs at $6.90. Highwines firmer. They are selling to-day at 20@20½c.

ALBANY—Feb. 15.—The Albany Statesman says:

Hogs—Very choice State Hogs continue to bring extreme rates, and sales to some extent were made last evening. To-day the demand has slackened. Last evening—

170 head Canadas, light and heavy	7⅛@7⅜

To-day—

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 15.—The Press says:

Provisions are coming in more freely, but the firmness of holders checks business. Mess Pork is selling at $18.25@18.50 ℔ bbl. Bacon Hams, 11@13c; Sides, 10½c; Shoulders, 8½c. About 100 casks sold to go South at these rates. Green Meats are in steady demand; 900 pieces Sides sold at 9½c; 900 do Shoulders at 7½; 150 casks do, private; 130 do Hams in pickle at 10½c, all on time. No change in Lard. LOUISVILLE, Feb. 13.—An almost constant rain put a stop yesterday to out-door business. Small sales of Flour at previous prices. Wheat unchanged. Sales 250 bu Corn from store at 55c. In the grocery market—42 hhds Sugar at 8@8½c; 17 do at 8¼@8½c; 6 tierces clarified at 10½c, and about 50 bags Coffee at 12½c. Provision market very; sales of 100 bbls mess pork at $18; 150 casks bacon on orders at 8@10 and 11c for shoulders, ribbed and clear sides, and hams; 60 tcs F. C. hams at 11½c, and 450 tcs lard at 10½c.

The British Corn Trade.

[From the Mark Lane Express, Jan. 30.]

Fluctuations from hoar frost to fog and wet have again ruled during the past week. There is now consequently an unusual accumulation of water in the reservoirs, and the deep springs have generally got their supplies for the next summer. The sodden state of the clay lands prevents their tillage, and field work has been generally impeded. Farmers still suffer seriously in the condition of their samples, so that notwithstanding short supplies, in many markets we have a repetition of dull accounts. In some places even prime qualities have been rather brought down by the very low rates procured for what has been unfit for use without mixing. A few markets have, however, reported a small advance in useful qualities. But in London, with a stock of foreign about 80,000 qrs. beyond this time last year, say about 310,000 quarters and 900,000 quarters more throughout the kingdom, millers are not eager buyers. And this is, perhaps, the more so, as the mild weather may produce earlier shipments from the Baltic than was once expected. Some quantity of old also yet remains in the country. Whatever opinions, therefore, prevail, neither the general quality of the English Wheat, nor the prices demanded for good foreign here or abroad, are tempting to speculators. Foreign markets in the Baltic have been influenced by the prevailing apathy, but in France, the near countries, and Odessa, very little change has taken place. From America there have also been duller reports. The shipments of Flour lately arrived from New York leave no margin to encourage imports, and as prime Kentucky Wheat is quoted to 1d 55c per bushel, which at 63 pounds per bushel equals 54s 3d per quarter, free on board, it is clearly out of range for the London market. To ship the low spring qualities, when such difficulties are found in placing inferior autumn-planted Wheat here, would certainly be like carrying coals to Newcastle.

The arrivals off the coast since the 17th inst. were only 4 cargoes; of which 3 cargoes were Barley, and 1 Maize.

The business transacted was as follows: 2 cargoes of Marianople Wheat at 47s 4d per qr.; and 1 Barbary Barley at 23s. 11d. There have also been sold 10,000 qrs. Danubian for spring at 13s, and some from Sulina at 15s 3d per qr.

The sales of Wheat noted last week were 110,221 qrs. at 43s 11d, against 118,268 qrs. in 1859. The London averages were 44s 1d, on 5,194 qrs. The arrivals into the principal ports of Great Britain for the week ending 18th Jan., in Wheat and Flour, were equal to 64,065 qrs.

THIRTY-SIXTH CONGRESS—FIRST SESSION.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.

Senate not in session to-day.

HOUSE.—Mr. Fouke introduced a bill to incorporate the United States Agricultural Society. Referred to the Committee on the District of Columbia.

Mr. Miles rose to a question of privilege, saying that the House, at the last session, had positively ordered the chairs and desks then in use to be removed from the hall; that in contemptuous regard of the order, the floor has been blocked up with the re-introduction of the same chairs and desks. The door-keeper had no right to bring them in. He called on the Speaker to enforce the rule. This blending of both systems had the advantages of neither and the disadvantages of both.

Mr. Maynard asked whether Mr. Miles was willing the sense of the majority should be expressed without objections.

Mr. Miles was perfectly willing.

Mr. Washburne, of Ill., as one of the Squatter Sovereignty, said he was responsible for bringing in the seat and desk he now occupied.

Messrs. Rust, Conkling and McClernand made similar declarations as to their seats and desks. They, as did also Mr. Harris of Md., explained that no blame should rest on the doorkeeper, and assigned as their reasons for re-introducing their desks and chairs that there were not accommodations for one-tenth of the House at the large table outside the bar.

Mr. Miles was happy to exonerate the doorkeeper from blame. He was sorry that any gentlemen had undertaken indirectly to put aside a standing rule of the House. He thought, however, the door-keeper ought to have sternly resisted the importunity of members.

Finally, a special committee of three was ordered to inquire into the expediency of removing the benches and replacing the chairs and desks, and to report the cost and time the change will occupy.

Mr. Keitt, from the joint committee to make arrangements for inaugurating Mills' equestrian statue of Washington, reported a joint resolution appropriating $70,000 to defray the expenses. Passed.

Mr. Sherman moved the election of Printer be farther postponed till Monday next. Agreed to.

The House passed the Senate resolution, giving the consent of Congress for Capt. Shubrick to accept the sword tendered him from President Urquiza of the Argentine Confederation, as a mark of approbation of the distinguished character of that officer.

The Senate bill to abolish the franking privilege, was read.

Mr. Vallandigham moved to refer it to a special committee, that the House may have all the facts.

Mr. Stevenson preferred that the bill be put on its passage now, but he would have no objection to its taking the usual course and being referred to the Post Office Committee.

Mr. Houston said the bill involved no new principle. He desired to keep it in a position where a vote could be had on it. He moved that its consideration be postponed for three weeks from Tuesday.

Mr. Washburne moved to refer it to the Judiciary Committee.

Mr. Reynolds moved to lay it on the table. This motion was negatived by 72 against 99. The House refused to refer the bill to the Judiciary Committee. A parliamentary struggle ensued as to what disposition should be made of the bill. The House refused by 31 majority to refer it to the Post Office Committee. It was referred to a select committee of five, and the House adjourned till Monday.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.—The Committee on the Printing Investigation sat several hours this morning and examined Mr. John C. Rives on various matters connected with the Congressional Globe. He proved that the Senate printing was executed in his office under an arrangement with Mr. Bowman, by which he received two-thirds of the price paid by law for doing the work, and Mr. Bowman one third of the profits of the job, without incurring any risk or responsibility.

It is understood here that the Pennsylvania delegates to the Charleston Convention will support the nomination of Breckenridge, though they are not yet appointed. Mr. Bigler will go as one of the Senatorial delegates.

[N. Y. Herald's Correspondence.]

There was a smell of powder about the Capitol yesterday. A difficulty occurred between Dr. Alvord, of Mich., and Mr. Lasell, of North Carolina, an officer of the House, which resulted in an exchange of hostile notes. Friends interfered; the notes were withdrawn, and the affair settled.

Information has been received, and from a reliable source, that the Juarez Government has accepted the proposition recently made to them by a responsible Company, representing several thousand Americans, accepting their aid, and ceding to them large landed interests in several of the Mexican States.

Mr. Winter Davis of Md., is, on the first favorable opportunity, to reply to the resolutions of the Maryland Legislature denouncing his vote for Pennington.

The Senate Committee on Territories has before it Territorial bills for the organization of Nevada and Arizona. The former will probably be reported at the next meeting. Arizona, it is understood, will not be reported this session.

The Senate has confirmed J. D. Crittenden as Register, and W. H. Moore as Receiver of the Land Office in Minnesota. S. M. Aymes as Register, and J. Laplace as Receiver at Natchitoches, La.; and B. P. Anderson, U. S. Attorney for Washington Territory.

Lord Lyons had a long interview to-day with the Secretary of State, in which he laid the propositions of the British Government, in reference to San Juan, before our Government.

The vote to-day on the motion to table the Senate bill to abolish the Franking Privilege, does not afford a fair indication of the sense of the House on the subject, as some of the members who recorded their names in the negative, would have voted directly against the bill, had the question on its passage been presented. Although Mr. Colfax, the chairman, and a majority of the Post Office Committee, is understood to be in favor of abolishing the Franking Privilege, they are said to be against interfering with the present law in regard to the circulation of newspapers.

The House, by 31 majority, refused to give the bill that direction, and referred it to a special committee, which was moved by a gentleman who has publicly expressed his opposition to the proposed measure.

In order to show that Kansas had the requisite population under the law of Congress to entitle her to admission as a State into the Union, Mr. Arny has sent for certified copies of the registry and census taken last year, and for copies of the various election returns of last year. They have not been forwarded by the Secretary of the Territory to the State Department. From certified copies of the returns which Judge Arny has obtained from the clerks of some of the counties in Kansas, he concurs with Judge Petit and others, in the opinion that there are over 100,000 inhabitants within the boundaries prescribed for Kansas in the Wyandotte Constitution. In Allen County, which is on the N. Y. Indian Reserve, there are over 2,000 persons; and in Linn County, which includes the Miami Reserve, there are over 1,300 registered voters. These are two of the extreme Southern counties, and owing to the troubles growing out of the claims of the Indians to the land, Judge Arny states that the settlement has been retarded.

The Congressional Committee for the inauguration of the statue of Washington, to-day arranged an extensive programme. A special invitation was extended to Gen. Scott, who answered by telegraph that he could not be present owing to physical indisposition. A sub-committee has in charge the military arrangement, and will invite the military of some of the principal cities to be present. Among others it is said the 7th Regiment National Guards of New York.

It is intended, as far as the brief interval for preparation will allow, to make the occasion of very imposing interest. Major Gen. Jesup is to be the Grand Marshal on the occasion. Places are provided in the procession for among others, the Judges of the Supreme Court, members of the Diplomatic Corps, officers of the Army and Navy, the President and his Cabinet, Members of Congress, Mr. Bocock, the orator of the day, and Clark Mills, the artist who executed the statue, and even for officers and soldiers of the Revolutionary army in uniform.

The Army Medical Board which recently convened here, have reported favorably on the respective ambulances of Surgeons B. Finley Cooledge and Tripler. Several of each kind are to be placed in the service, so that their practical advantages may be ascertained. The Board also made important changes in the standard supply table for general and post hospitals, &c.

Among the recent confirmations by the Senate are Wm. R. Parish as District Attorney for Southern Illinois, and John H. Lewis, U. S. Marshal for Arizona.

The receipts into the Treasury last week were $2,000,000. The payments made amounted to $400,000. The balance subject to draft is $9,000,000.

A Bloody Tragedy.

JANESVILLE, Mich., Feb. 18.—A man in this town named McEwen having ill treated his wife, she fled from the house with her child, and he following, seized her and stabbed her several times in various parts of the body, and left her for dead. He then took the child and went to his house, where he attempted to kill himself by cutting his throat. At last accounts both McEwen and his wife were still alive, though her wounds may prove fatal. The man was under the influence of liquor.

Conflagration in Canada.

BRANTFORD, C. W., Feb. 17.—A fire broke out this morning in McLan's dry goods store, on Golborne street, extending thence east and west on both sides of the street, and up Market street to Healton's block, destroying altogether twenty-three buildings. Amount of loss not known, but is variously estimated at between $100,000 and $200,000. Amount of insurance not known. Owing to the intense cold, the fire engines were unable to do much service.

Deaths at Boston.

BOSTON, Feb. 17.—Geo. L. Wilkins, connected with the Opera Troupe of Strakosch and Ullmann, died this morning after a few days' illness.

N. W. Tuckerman, of the firm of Whitney & Co., merchants of this city, died yesterday afternoon.

Fire at New Bedford.

NEW BEDFORD, Feb. 17.—Two wooden buildings occupied as a mechanic's shop and a grocery, together with the dwellings adjoining, corner of Miller and Second streets, were destroyed by fire last night. Pollard & Myrick, coopers, and G. Allen are among the sufferers.

Fire in Hartford, Ct.

HARTFORD, Feb. 17.—The manufactories of Squier & Parsons, and Gridley & Perkins, in this place, were destroyed by fire this morning. Loss of the former $30,000, and the latter $10,000. Insured $24,000 and $6,500.

Virginia Democratic Convention.

RICHMOND, Va., Feb. 17.—There were no further proceedings last night, except the appointment of a Committee on the congratulatory dispatch from Connecticut.

This morning the vote taken on last night's resolution to admit as delegates all the Democrats now here from counties not otherwise represented, was decided in the affirmative. This was a triumph for the friends of Henry A. Wise, and great cheering followed the announcement of the result.

The following resolution was introduced by Gen. Chapman:

Resolved, That it is the opinion of this Convention that Henry A. Wise is the choice of the Democratic party of this State for the Presidency.

W. D. Wallack offered as a substitute:

Resolved, That this Convention pledges itself to support any National ticket that shall be nominated according to the usages of the party.

A substitute for both resolutions was introduced, declaring in effect that it is inexpedient for this Convention to declare a preference for any of the distinguished gentlemen who have been named in connection with the Presidency; but that it is expedient to declare that the Democracy of Virginia will give their support to the Charleston nominee.

The resolution and the substitute were discussed at length, but no definite action was taken on them.

The Committee on the Connecticut resolutions reported the following in answer thereto, which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the Democracy of Virginia have received with heartfelt gratification the kind message of the Democrats of Connecticut, and in response express the ardent hope that the efforts of the Convention may avail to preserve the Union from the lawless assaults of fanaticism.

Resolved, That Virginia congratulates her sister State on her selection of a true and gallant standard-bearer, in the person of Thomas H. Seymour.

The Convention then adjourned till 4 P. M. The proceedings were more orderly than yesterday.

The Convention thus far (11 P. M.) has been occupied in discussing the resolution of preference for the Presidency and the substitutes. Great excitement exists, and if a vote be taken to-night, the result will probably not be announced until to-morrow morning.

European News by the "Kangaroo," via Queenstown.

LONDON Feb. 2.—Le Norde says that on Monday couriers left London and Paris with identical instructions, to the Representatives of the two Powers at Turin, directing them to make known to the Sardinian Cabinet, that the governments of France and England see no objection to the annexation of Central Italy becoming a fait accompli.

The British screw steamship Kangaroo, Capt. Brooks, arrived at an early hour this morning from Liverpool, via Queenstown. She left Liverpool on the 1st and Queenstown on the 2d. Her advices are no later than previously received, yet they contain some points of interest.

The Dublin Freeman, of the 2d, publishes a letter from the Roman Catholic Archbishop of Dublin, calling for tribute for the Pope. The latter fills two and a quarter columns.

The London Daily News, of the 2d, thus notices the aspect of the money market the previous day:

The bullion draft is abating. The amount of gold withdrawn from the bank to-day was £30,000, making a total for the week of £622,000. This day's smallness of withdrawal was partially occasioned by the receipt of £60,000 Australian gold by the Success, which was this day sold for exportation, but in the Discount Office, at the Bank to-day, the demand was extremely heavy, and the disorganization of the discount market was more complete than at any period since the autumn of 1857. In all quarters money was tight, and many of the ordinary channels of accommodation were completely closed. Some of the principal establishments to-day declined to take bills even from their regular customers. Large parcels of bills have been sent back to the Provinces and Scotland. In instances where transactions took place, 4@4½ per cent was the rate for paper having a moderately short period to run.

Massachusetts Democratic Delegates.

BOSTON, Feb. 17.—The Democratic Convention of the VIIth District, held at Haverhill yesterday, elected Frederick O. Prince of Winchester, and George Johnson of Bradford as Delegates to the Charleston Convention. B. F. Watson of Lawrence, and Geo. W. Dyke of Storeham, substitutes.

The Convention was of rather an exciting nature, occasioned by double delegations, but ended harmoniously. The delegates are Douglas men.

The Democracy of Connecticut.

HARTFORD, Feb. 16.—At the Democratic State Convention yesterday afternoon, Thomas H. Seymour was nominated for Governor by acclamation. Twelve delegates to Charleston were chosen, eleven of whom are in favor of Douglas. A National salute was fired, and great enthusiasm prevailed.

Canada Election.

MONTREAL, Feb. 17.—Hon. Mr. Morin, the new Solicitor General for Canada East has been re-elected.

A Racket Match.

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—The great racket match yesterday between Devoy and LaMountain for $500 a side was won by the former.

REASONS FOR USING QUERU'S
Cod Liver Oil Jelly.

The N. Y. Academy of Medicine certify that it contains 85 per cent of Pure Cod Liver Oil.

1st—That it is an established fact that Oils, to be assimilated must be transformed into emulsion in the stomach.

2d—That in most of the cases in which Cod Liver Oil is prescribed, the stomach of the patient is not in proper condition to make emulsive all the amount of oil taken, and that a great part, and sometimes the whole of the oil passes off undigested, and consequently inoperative. (this is easily traced in the dejections.)

3d—That my Cod Liver Oil Jelly being a compound of oil and sugar, is an emulsion of itself as soon as in contact with a liquid; which takes place as soon as it reaches the stomach, whatever its condition may be.

4th—That in cases when the Physician believes Cod Liver Oil to be prescribed as a specific or otherwise, my Jelly is more reliable than the crude oil, because being a solid it must remain in the stomach to undergo the natural process of digestion and assimilation, when on the contrary the liquid oil will pass off inoperative, if the stomach, as above stated, is not in a condition to make it emulsive, which always is more or less the case when the oil is indicated.

From the above consideration, the superiority of Queru's Cod Liver Oil Jelly over the crude oil, is to be acknowledged as a positive and incontestable fact. Sold by
